CADET PRAYER

*Dear Lord and Heavenly Father,
As we search for knowledge and wisdom,
Grant that we may not forget
That Thou art the Giver
Of all good and perfect gifts.
Teach us to play the game with honor,
In our work and in our play.
May our words and deeds be such
That those who were before us
Will not be ashamed,
And those who follow after
Will find in us
An example of truth and courage—
The spirit of our school.
Give to us a noble spirit
That we, with our teachers,
May go forward to achieve
The highest goals in life.
Bless our school,
And all who teach,
And all who learn.
And Thine be the honor
And glory forever,*

Amen.

—David H. Edington, '99

not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation."*

DEDICATION - 1968

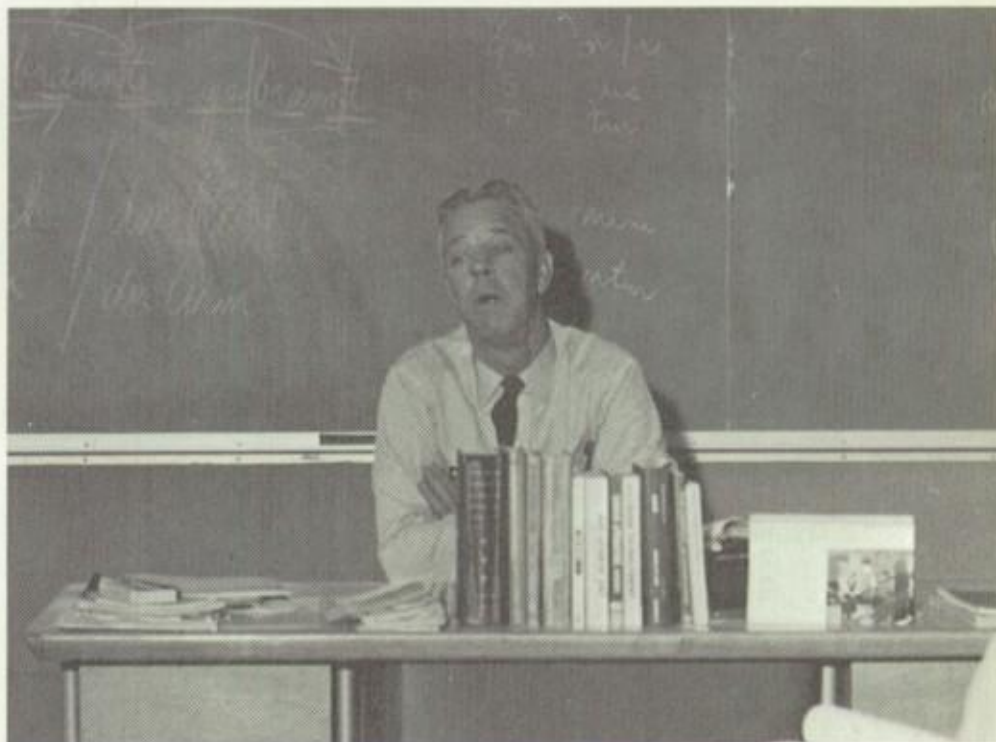

For eighteen years, Major Daniel B. Nolan has been a vital part of University Military School. His wholehearted devotion to U.M.S. and his sincere interest in each of its students have made him beloved by all who have been associated with him. As a teacher, as a counselor, as a friend, his standards have always been of the highest calibre.

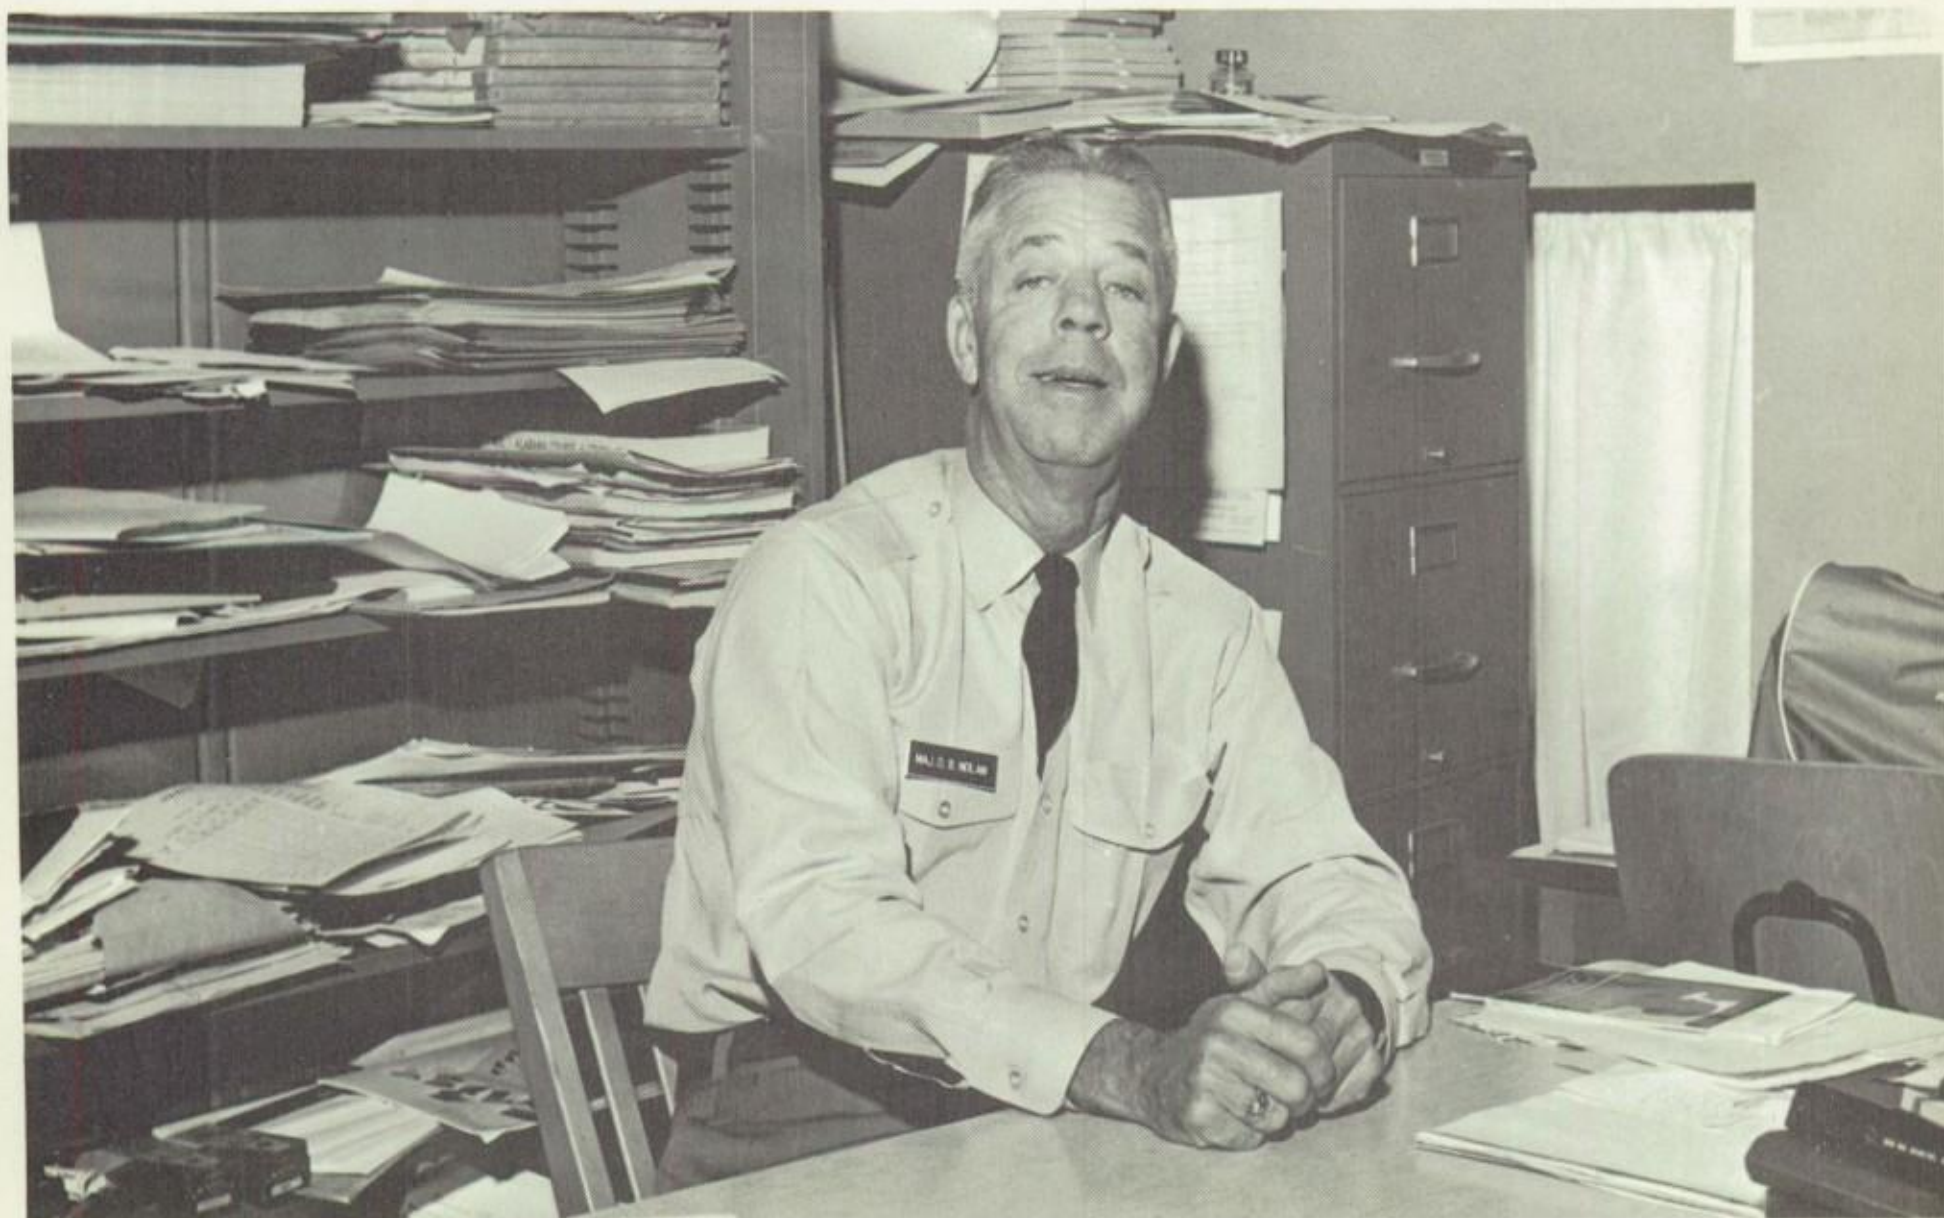

For his intriguing personality, his excellent instruction, his concerned guidance; for being ever willing to give aid in time of need; for his wisdom, his moral standards, and his strength of character, we respectfully dedicate the 1968 "Cadet" to Major Daniel B. Nolan.

UNIVERSITY MILITARY SCHOOL

THE SEVENTY-FIFTH YEAR

U.M.S. is responsibility . . .

It may be thought by some that this yearbook, in marking the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of University Military School, should review the many accomplishments of those seventy-five years. It was felt, however, that it would be of more advantage to examine U.M.S. as it stands today—to report what it is and what it can become rather than what it has been. Thus the “Cadet” of 1968 takes as its theme “U.M.S. is . . .,” and seeks to capture the various qualities and moods which go to make up the University Military School.

and interest.

U.M.S. is tradition . . .

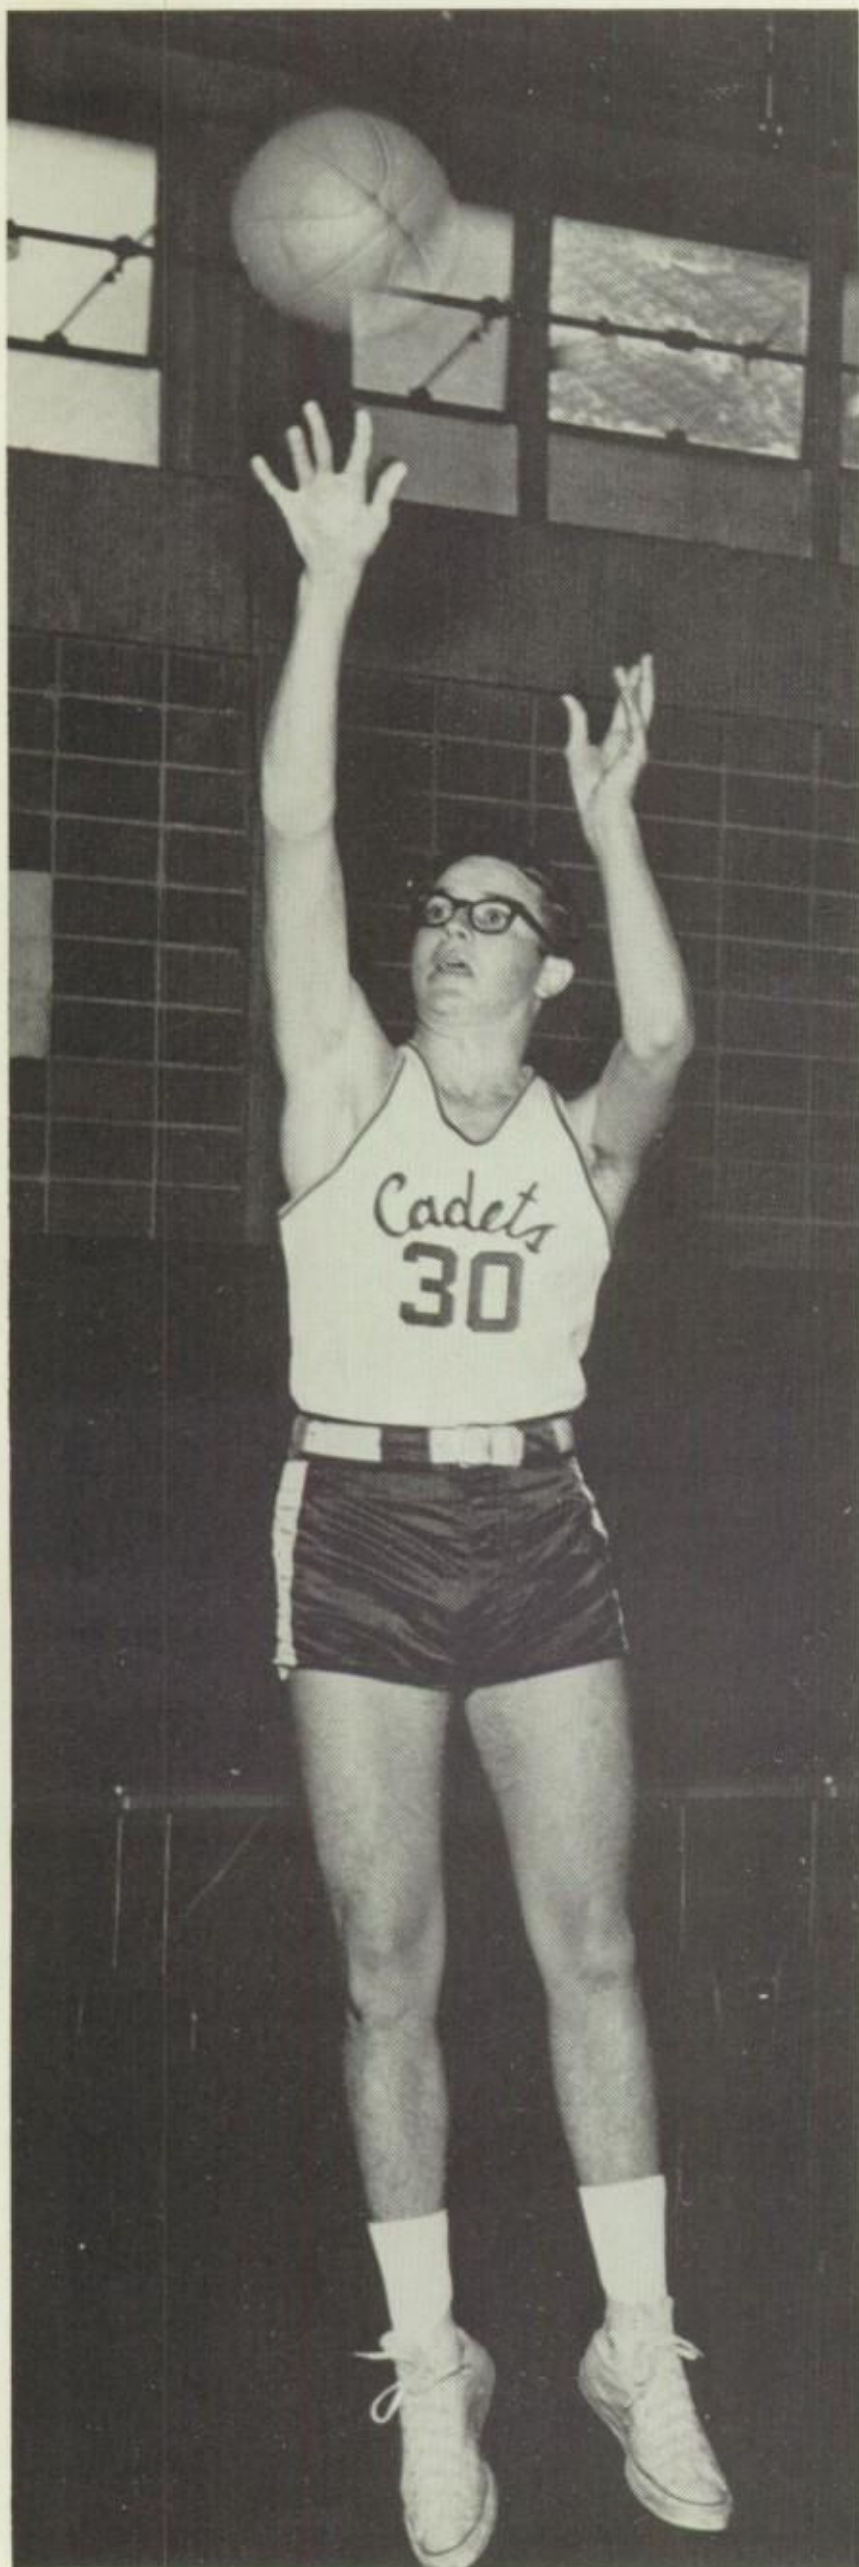

and adventure, . . .

excitement . . .

and heritage.

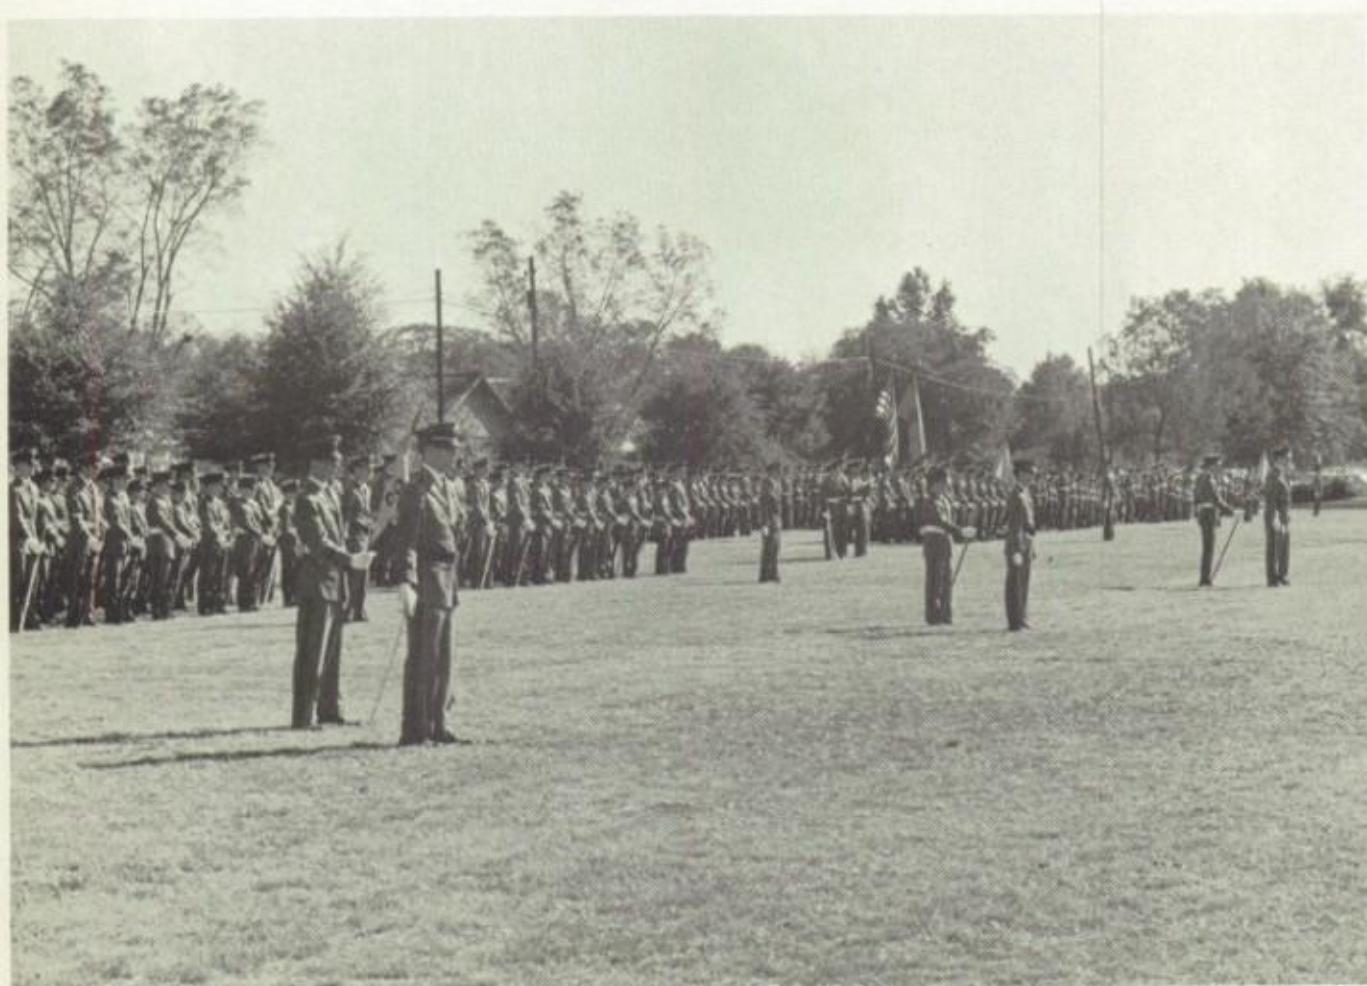

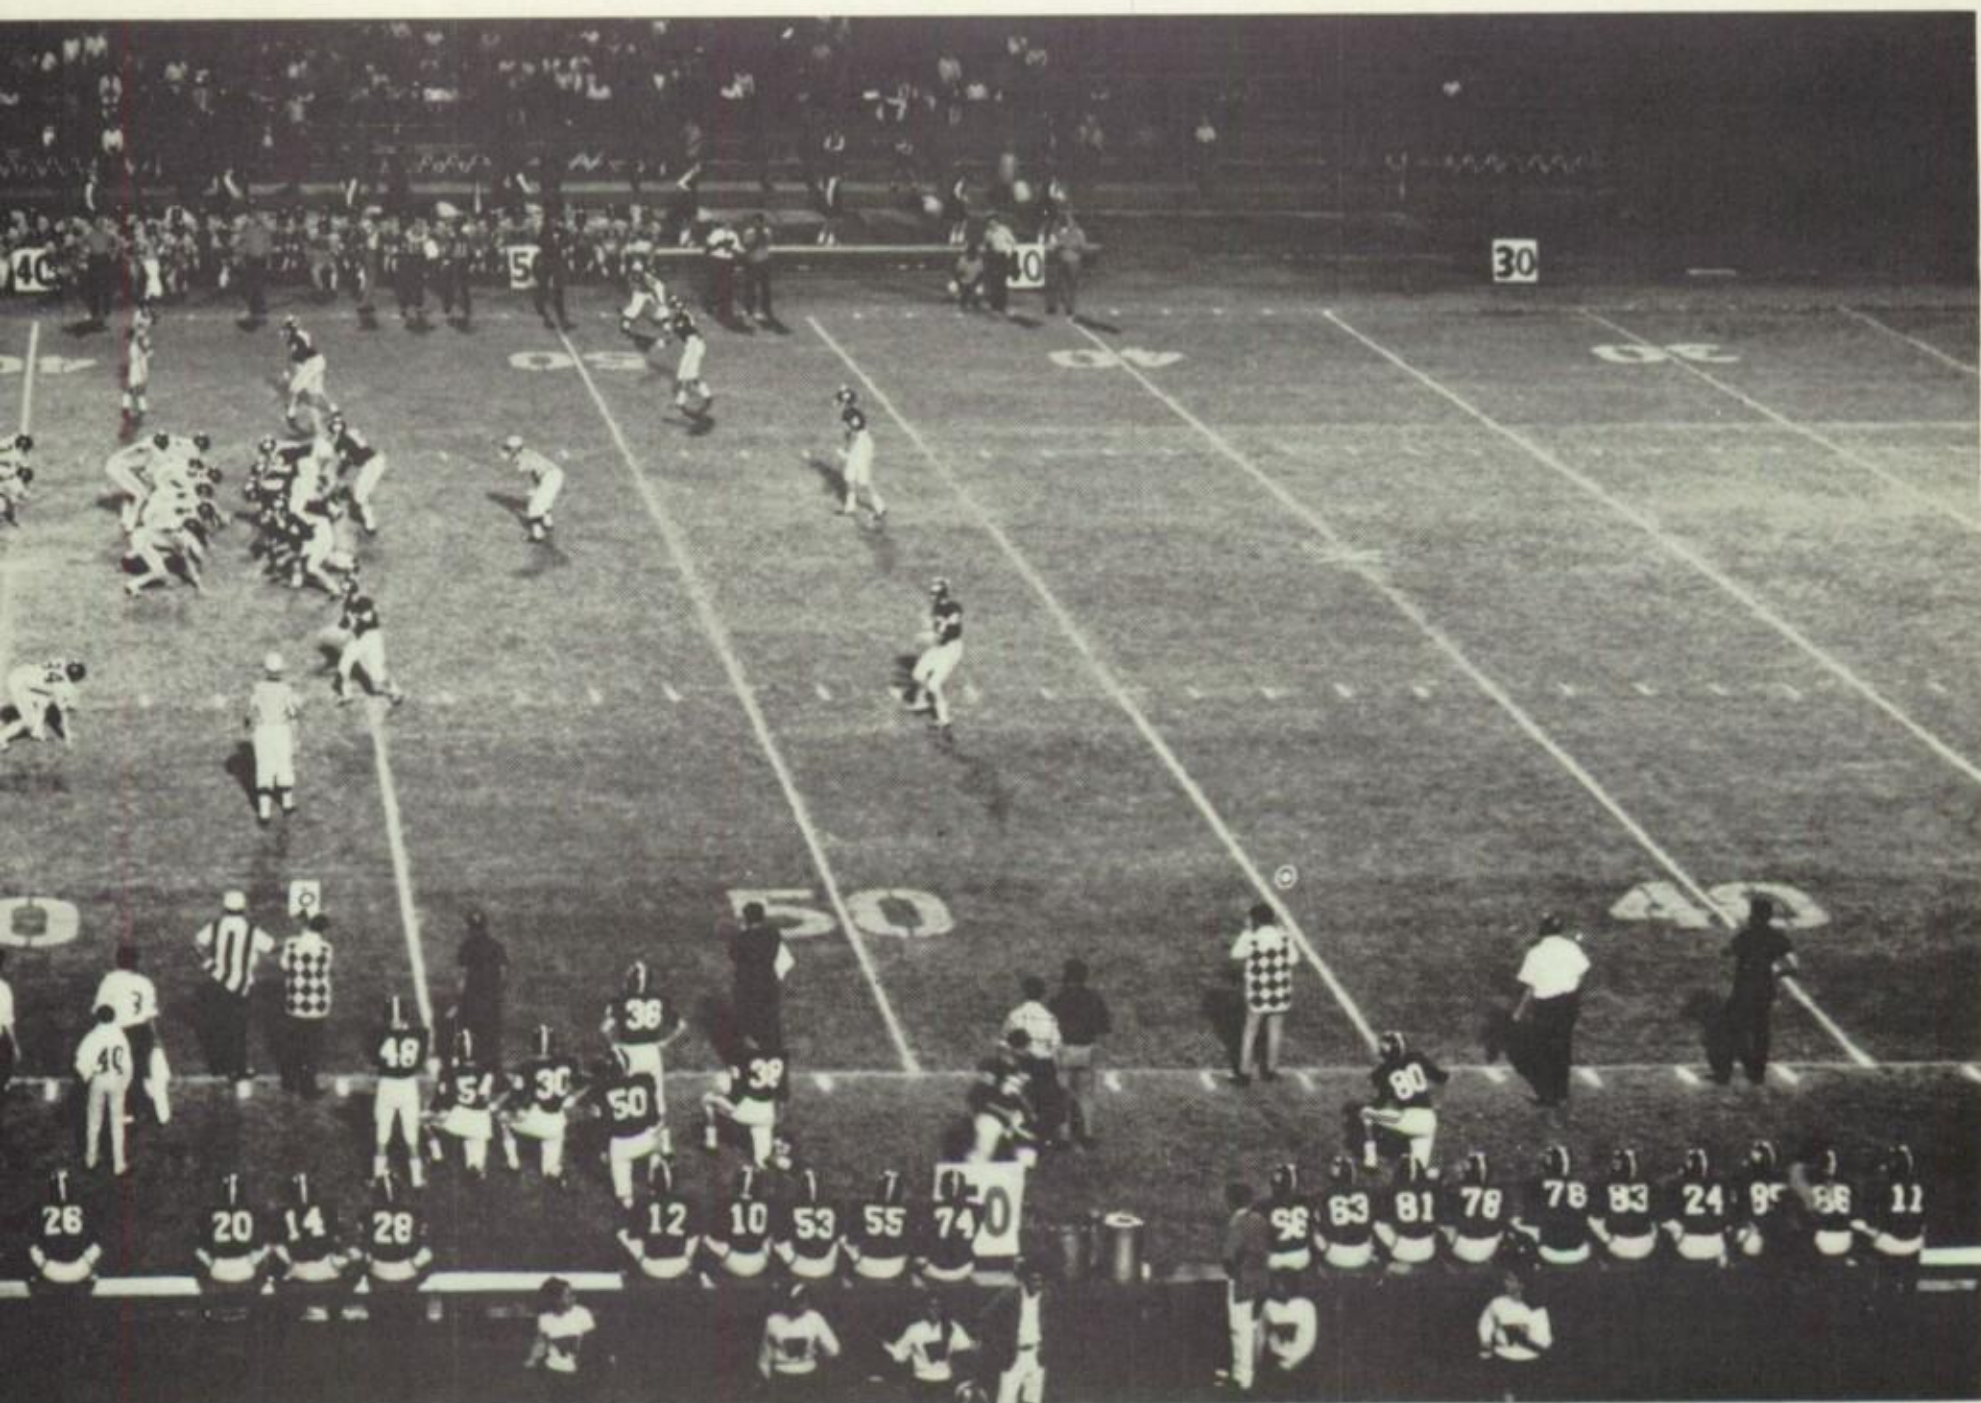

U.M.S. is individual achievement, . . .

First and foremost, U.M.S. is people—people willing and able to accept responsibility and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities. U.M.S. is also interest in these activities and in the adventure, excitement, and enjoyment of life which they present. U.M.S. is excellence in individual performance; but it is also the knowledge that such individual work may not be sufficient and that a willingness to cooperate with others may be required. And, as the Cadet Prayer speaks of “those who were before us,” we know that University Military School is a great and glorious heritage, a realization of the nobility of the past and of what it has given us.

and leadership.

U.M.S. is respect, . . .

and belief; . . .

U.M.S. is respect, both for the institutions of the world and for the authority which they represent. It is many years of our lives spent in earnest and dedicated work, but work which will ever bring reward. And possibly most important of all, it is a deep and abiding faith in God the Creator. Finally, U.M.S. is a completion, but—much more important to our future lives—it is a new beginning, a firm basis for the step which we shall take into the world.

We salute University Military School, and we thank it, and we wish that its next seventy-five years may be as successful and as prosperous as its past.

work, and reward; . . .

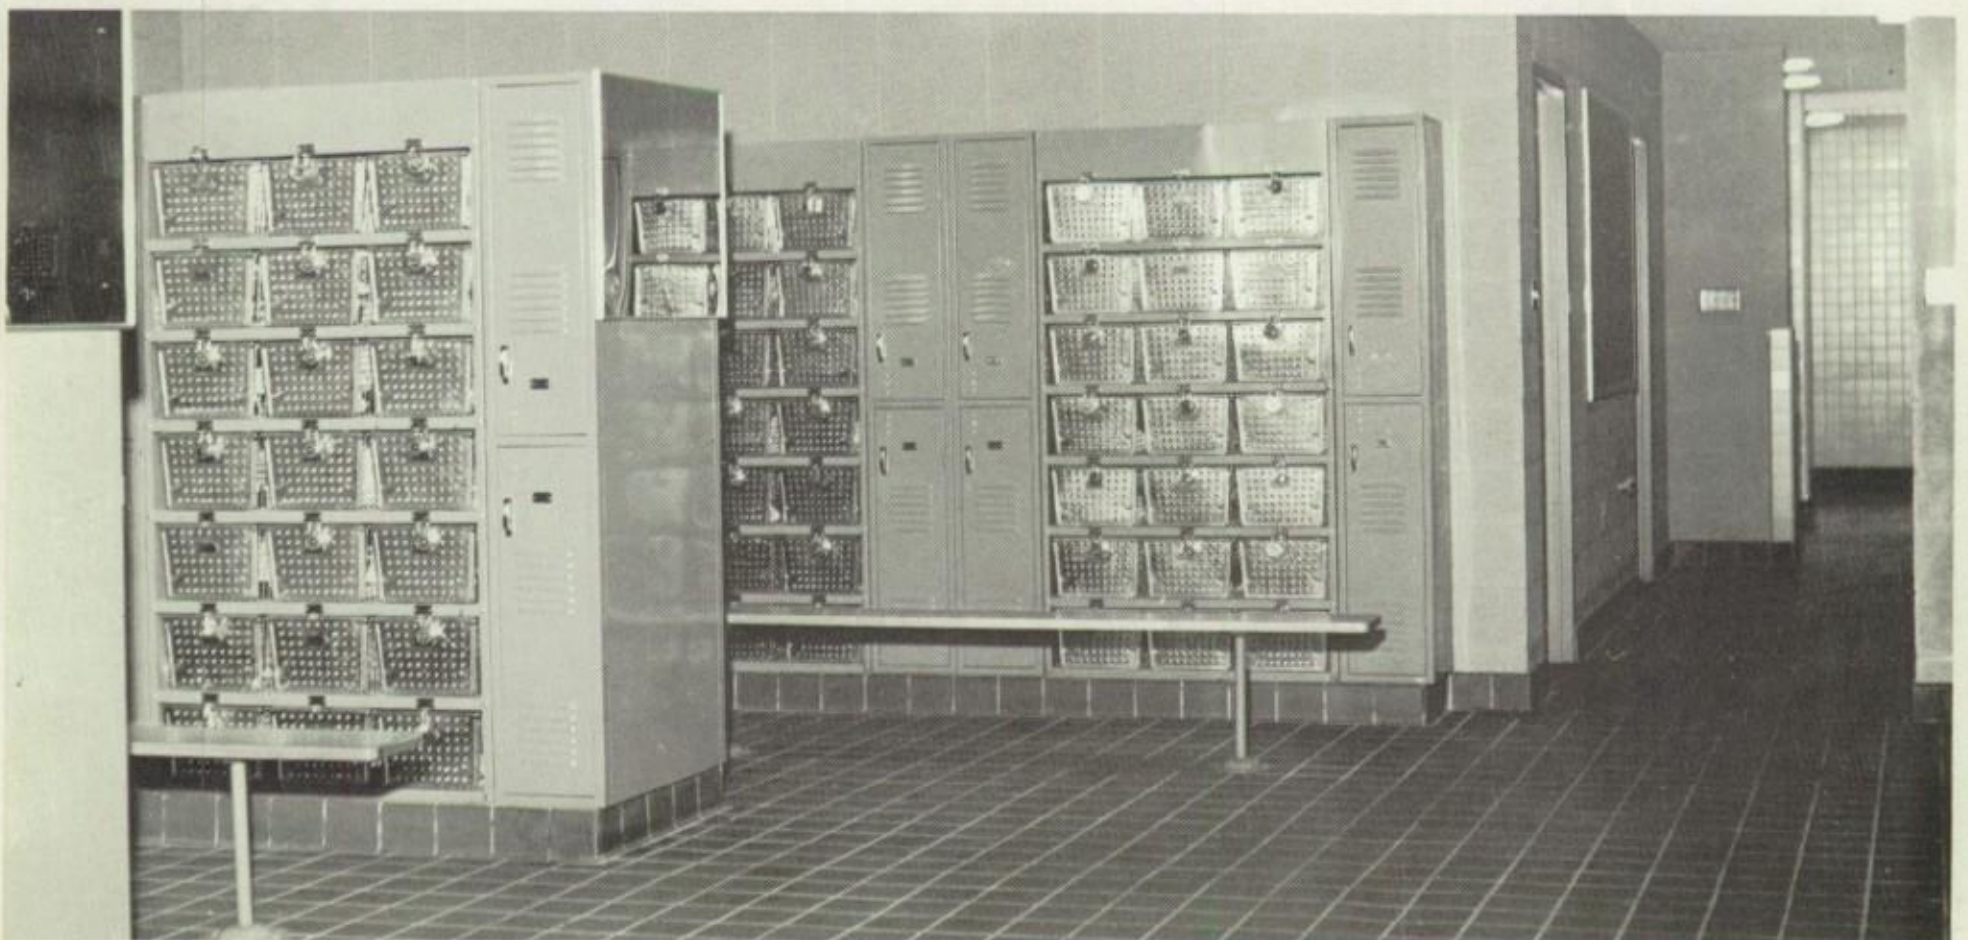

a completion, and a new beginning.

SWIMMING POOL

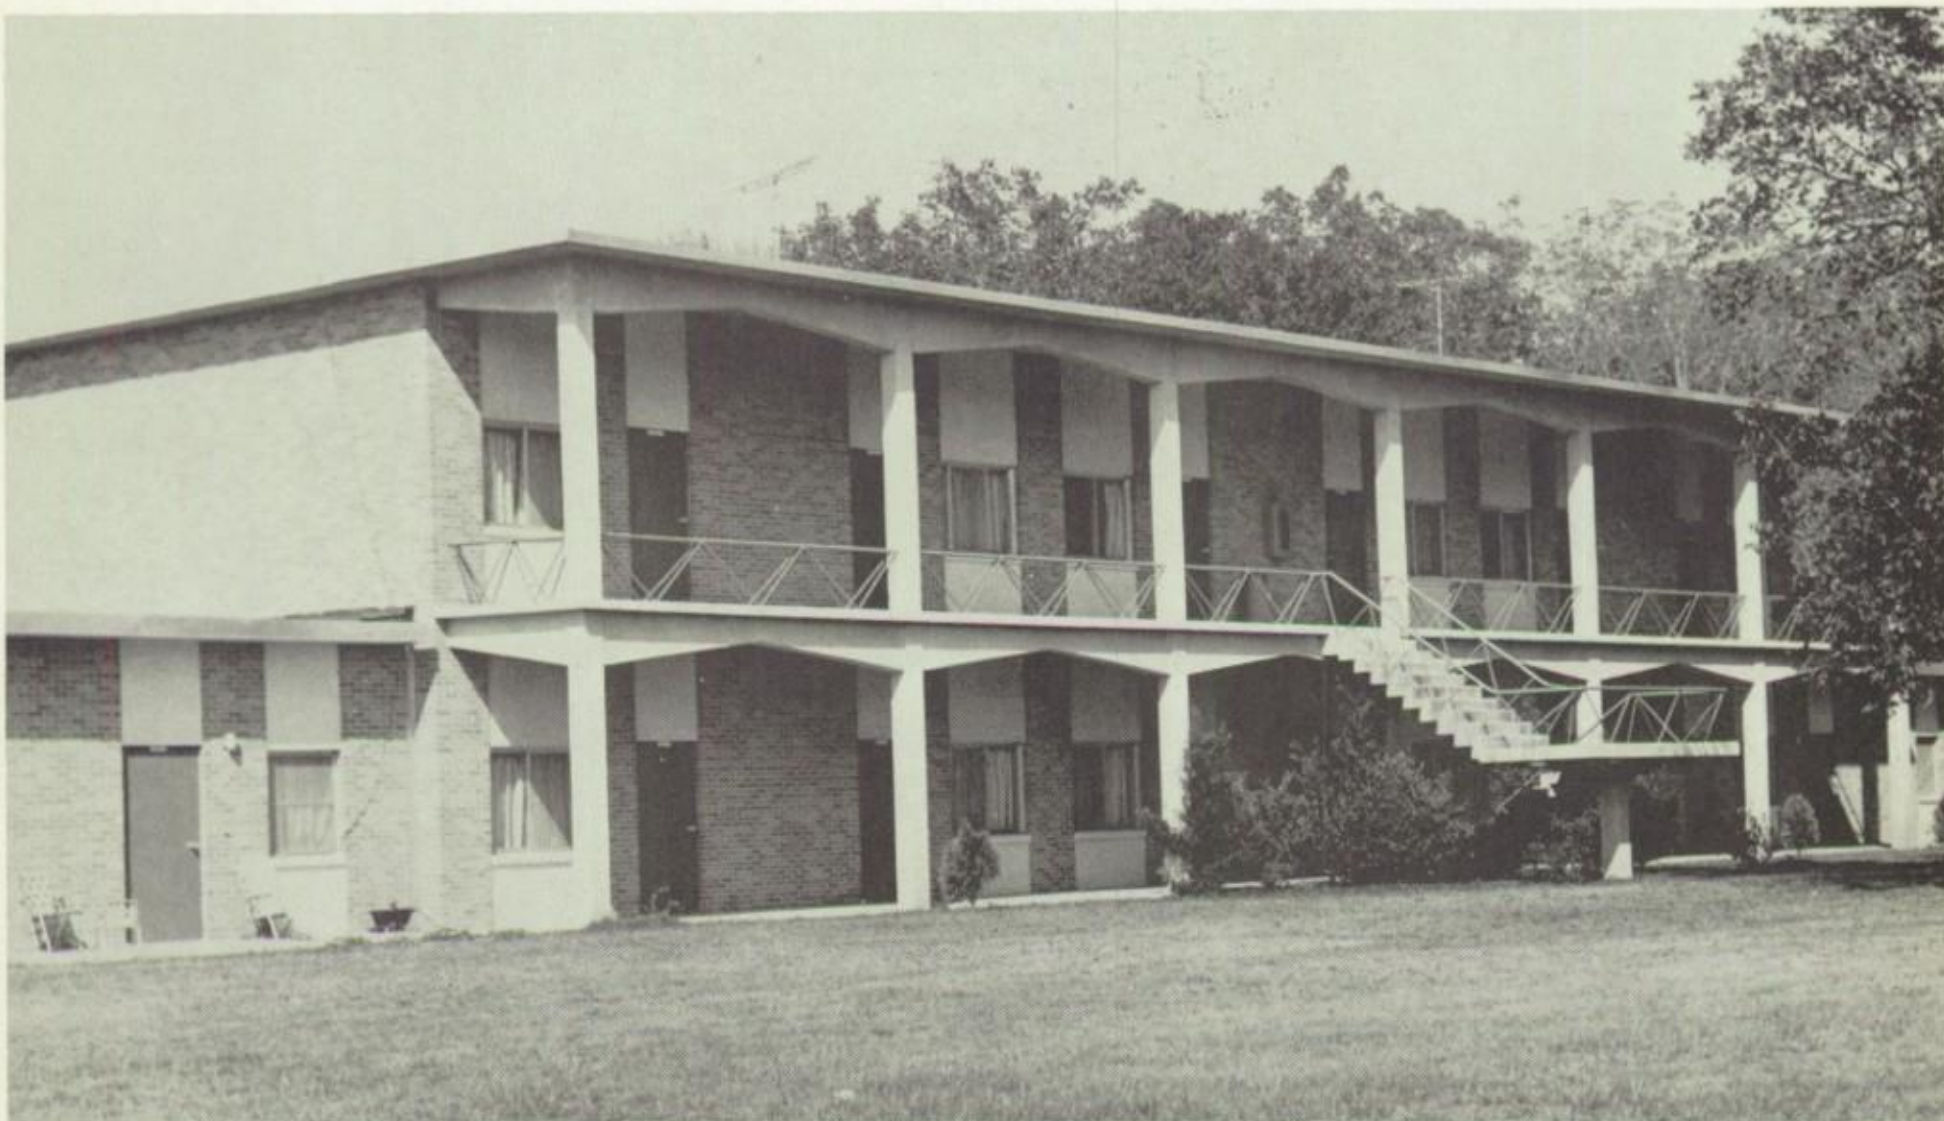

U.M.S. completed its long-awaited swimming pool and locker room complex in October of 1967. The facilities include a six-lane, Olympic-size pool, a spacious locker room with coaches' offices and storage areas, an eighty-seat classroom, a weight room, and a new armory. The additions were constructed on the north and west sides of the gymnasium.

E.A. ROBERTS HALL

During Homecoming ceremonies in 1964, U.M.S. formally dedicated its new, student dormitory, located on the south side of the campus. Named in memory of Mr. E. A. Roberts, late friend and benefactor of U.M.S., the structure has twenty-four two-student rooms and also includes a faculty apartment and a day room for recreation.

DAVID R. DUNLAP CHAPEL-AUDITORIUM

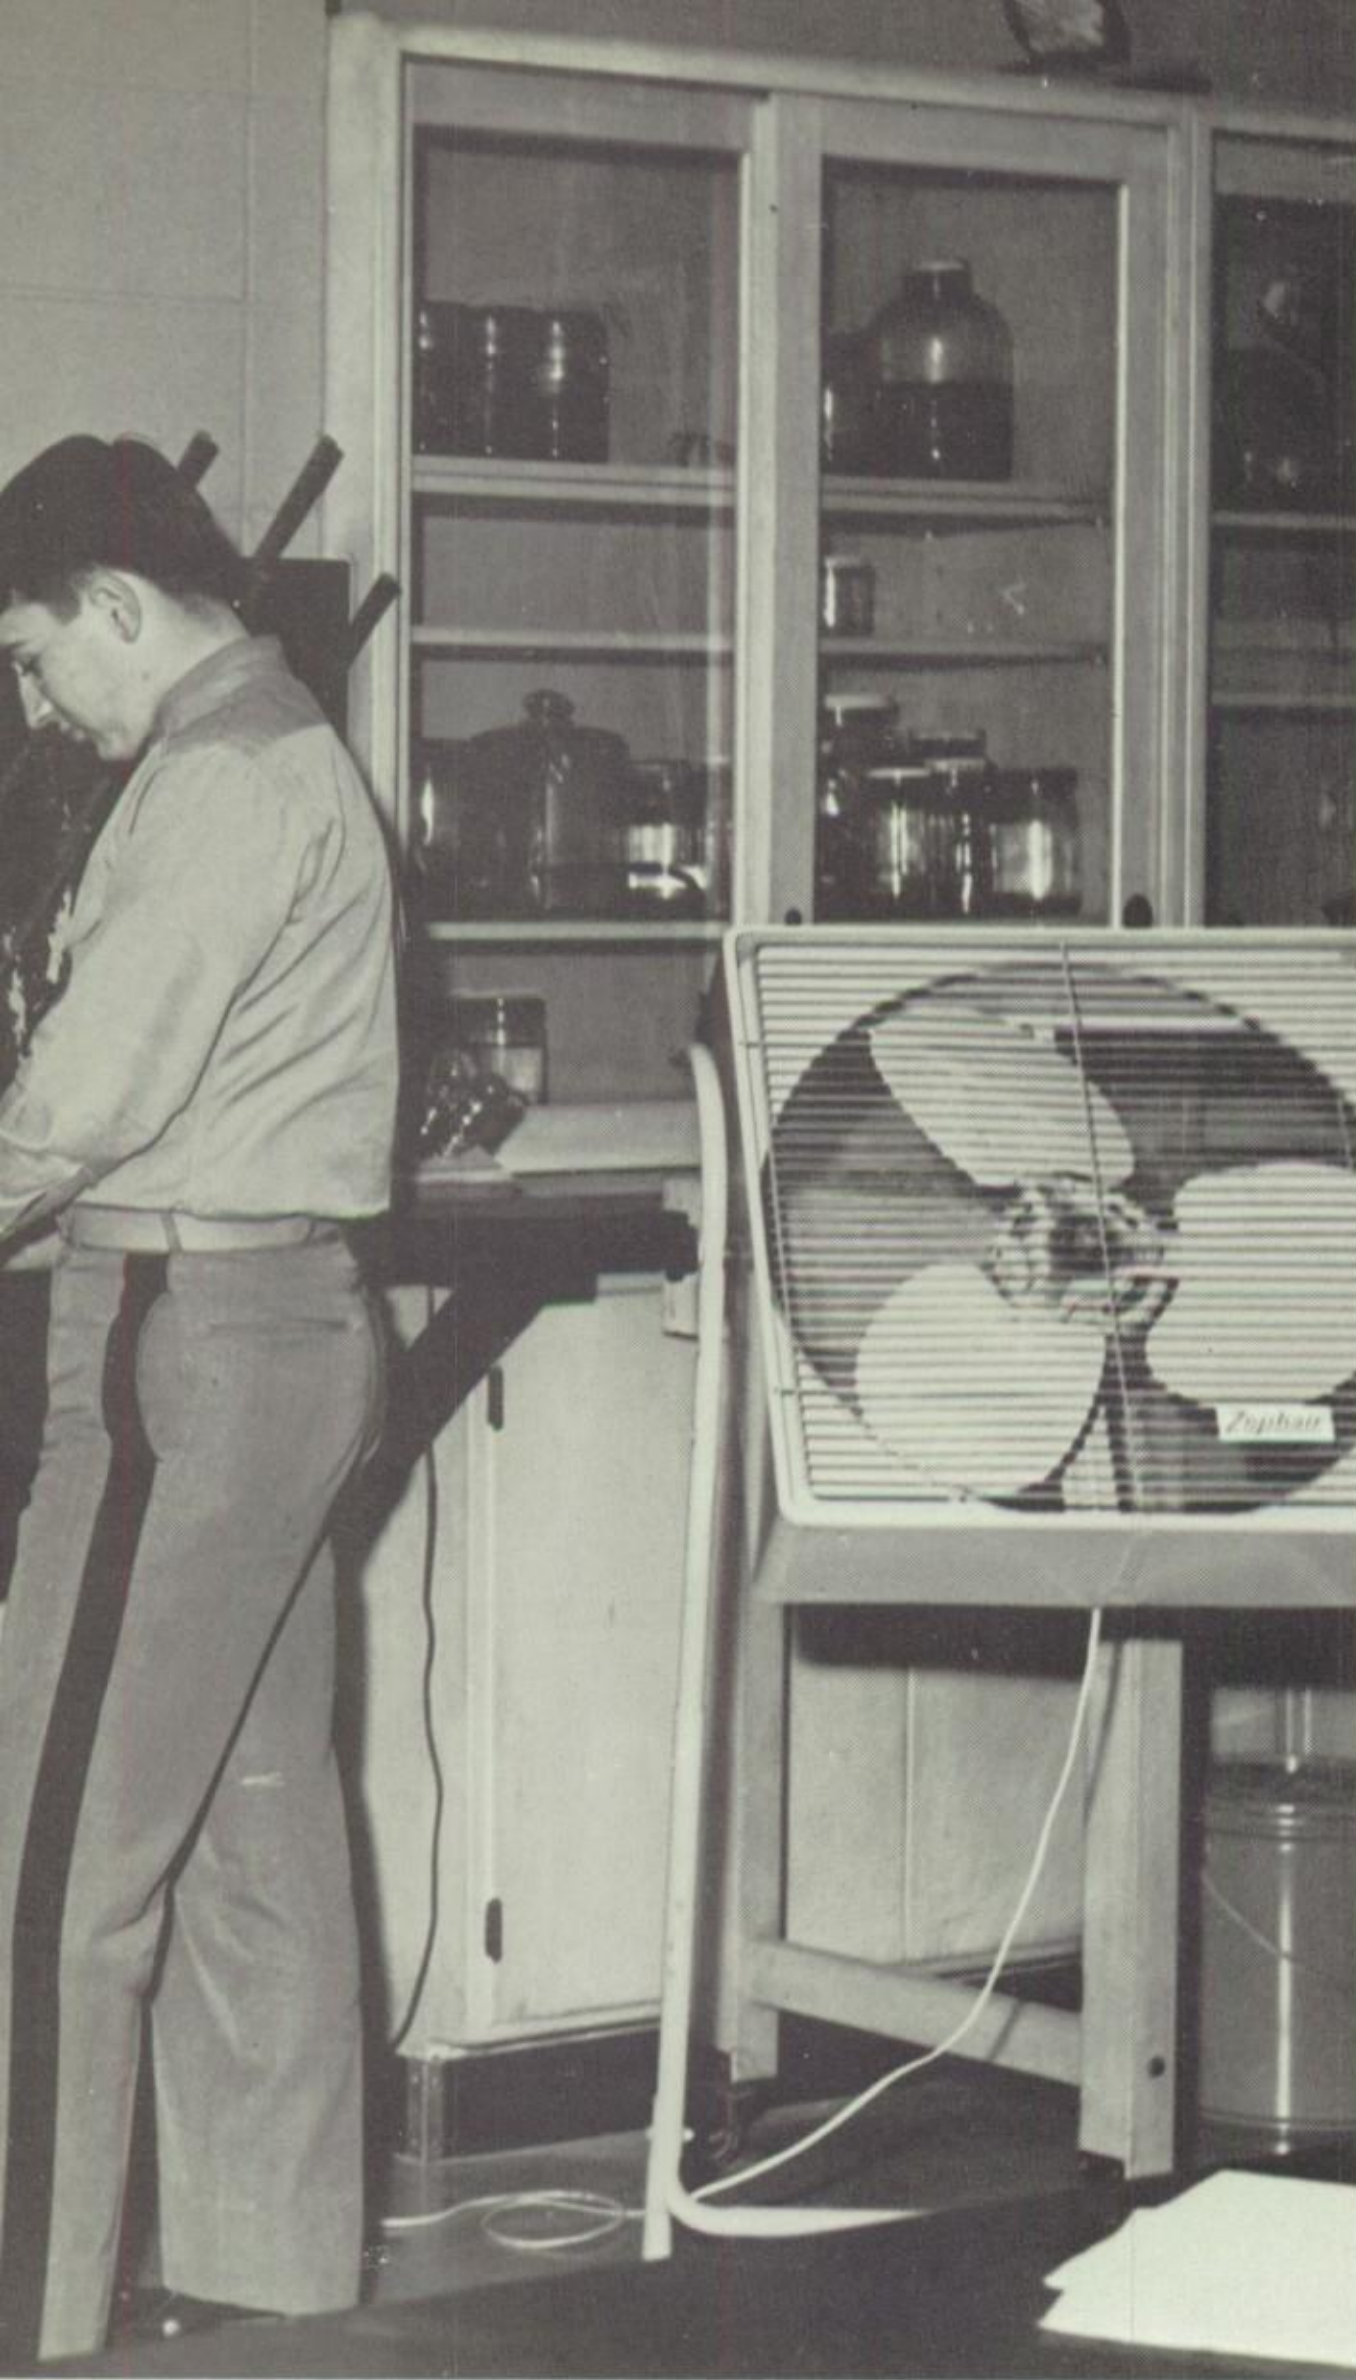

Through the donations of alumni and friends of U.M.S., the David R. Dunlap Chapel-Auditorium was erected on the campus in 1966. The 770-seat structure includes a glass-enclosed lobby, a chaplain's office, dressing rooms, and a balcony with projection booth. The large stage, with its modern lighting and sound equipment, is able to handle almost any production.

ENGLISH

The English department attempts to direct its efforts toward giving the student a thorough groundwork in language sophistication vital to our times. To achieve this goal, the department uses two main vehicles: grammar and literature.

The seventh-grade students study elementary English grammar, and the eighth-grade students go to an intermediate understanding by learning some of the more subtle phases of our syntactical structure. The ninth-grade student begins a study of writing, stressing techniques for certain, specific assignments. The tenth grade finishes the grammar emphasis with a detailed study of writing, from paragraph formations to the term paper.

The juniors begin the study of literature as they are introduced to a literary survey of our American heritage. Completion of the English program at U.M.S. has the seniors in an overview of English literature.

Captain LeGros discusses principles of addition.

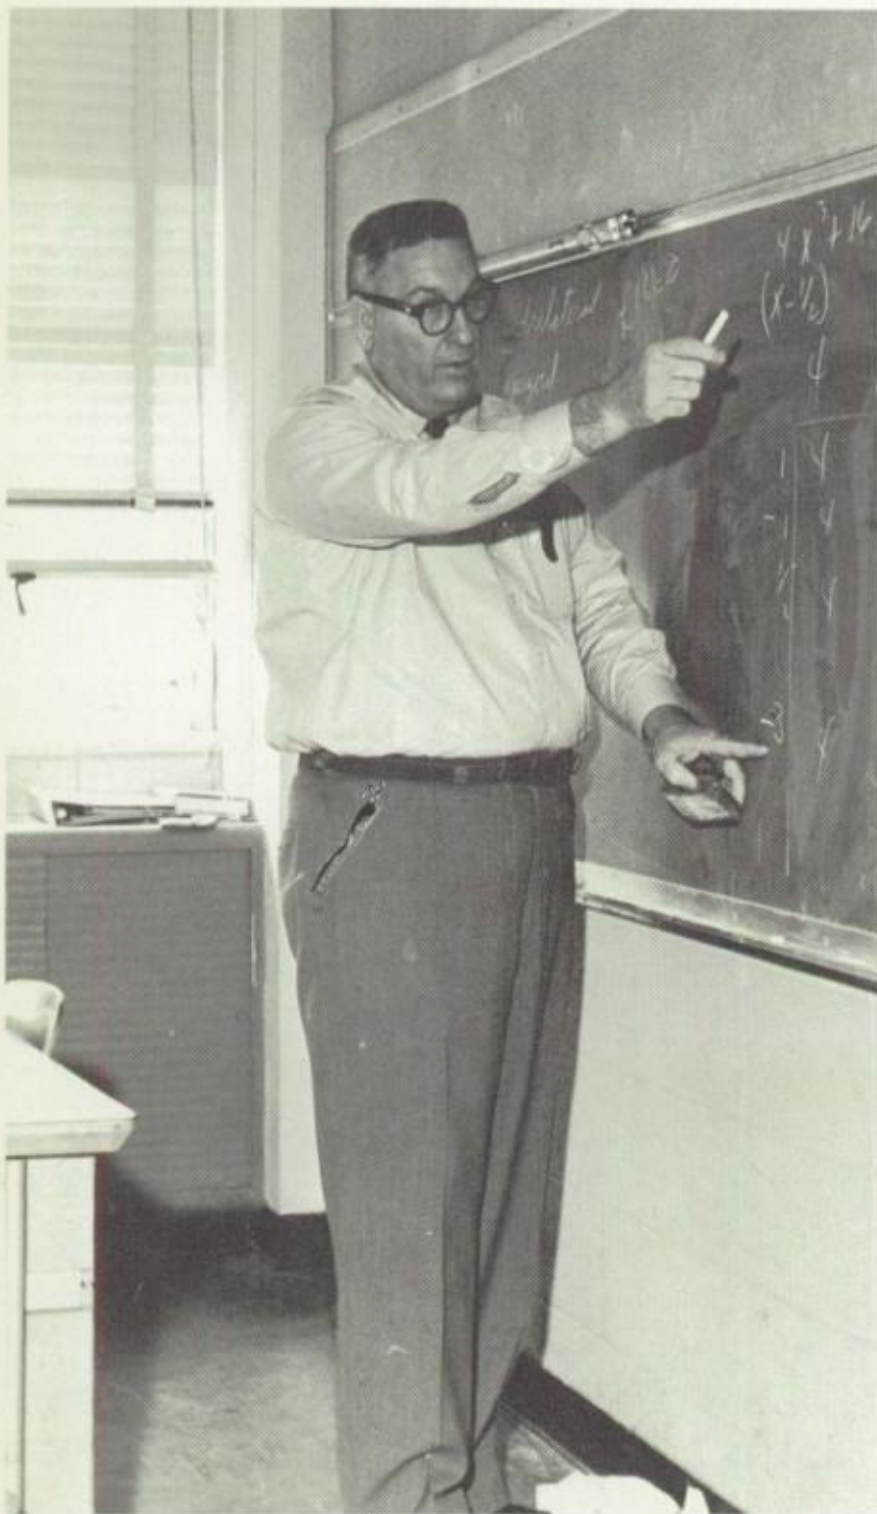

The mathematics program at U.M.S. is divided into two phases. The first phase is programmed for those students who do not wish to major in college in a course which requires more than the usual amount of general mathematics training. This student would usually take courses consisting of two years of algebra, one year of plane geometry, and one year of trigonometry and solid geometry.

The second phase of the mathematics program deals with the student who will either major in college mathematics or a related subject which requires more than a general knowledge of mathematics. In this phase, Algebra I is taught in the eighth grade, Algebra II in the ninth, plane and solid geometry in the tenth, trigonometry and college algebra during the junior year, and principles of freshman mathematics in the twelfth grade. This second program is open to students only by ways of examination and on the recommendation of the department.

SCIENCE

The science courses of University Military School are designed to provide a foundation for the continued study of science in higher education. The courses are intended to give the student a working knowledge of the physical world and an appreciation for the laws of nature, science, and scientific logic.

The seventh and eighth grade general science courses lead up to an intensive study of Physical Science in the freshman year. Biology combines Botany and Zoology for the sophomore student, and the more-challenging Chemistry and Physics courses are offered to juniors and seniors.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The Foreign Language Department at U.M.S. has three basic goals which its various courses attempt to reach. The first is to give the student a fundamental knowledge of the grammatical and syntactical structure of the language under study. This provides the student with the opportunity to practice analytical procedures that will hopefully carry over into other areas of study. The second goal is for the student to achieve a reading knowledge of the target language, in order to prepare him for research that he will undoubtedly be called upon to do at some time in his college career. The third and by no means least important aim is to furnish the student with information concerning the culture and customs of the people whose language he is studying.

To attempt to give U.M.S. students a broadly-based understanding of the history of Western Civilization and, more specifically, a history and appreciation of their own heritage as an American is the purpose of the Social Studies Department. A complete study of political science, economics, religion, and philosophy equips U.M.S. graduates with knowledge and wisdom needed to cope with the complexities of their culture.

ELECTIVES

U.M.S. students are given a wide choice of optional courses which may serve as vocational training or which may be of general interest to the student. These courses are known as electives.

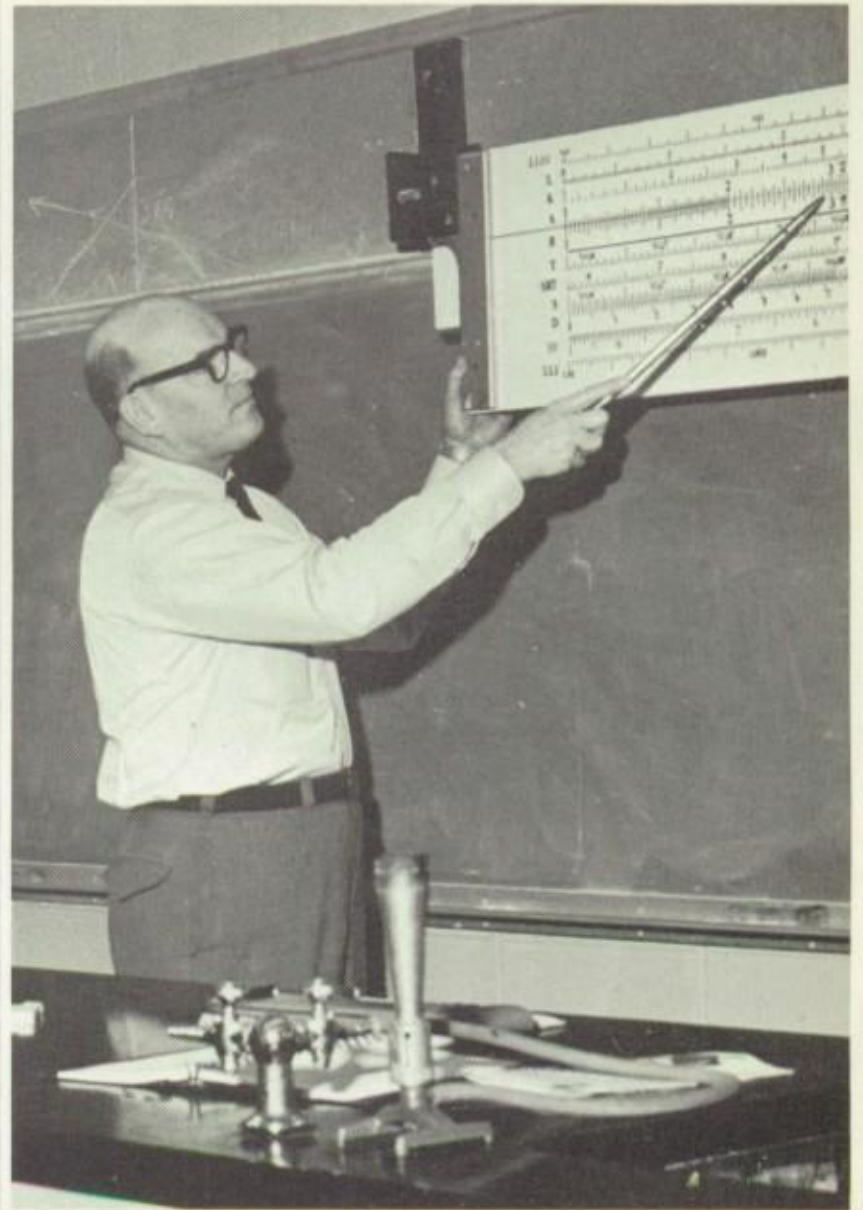

Slide Rule is taught to those students who are interested in obtaining a greater knowledge of mathematical operations and their rapid and efficient use. A necessity to almost any college-bound student, Typing can be taken to insure neater written work in later life. Those who may be later required to often face the public have the opportunity of taking speech. Creative Writing is offered to the student who may be interested in writing or journalism as a career or hobby. Two years of Engineering Drawing provide a firm foundation for the profession of engineering.

MUSIC

At U.M.S., the Music Department tries to serve as many students as possible. All students in the elementary school are offered vocal and instrumental training. Special training is given to those students of the junior and senior high schools who demonstrate musical ability and interest. A general music course is given to all eighth-grade students. If the student is planning a career in music, there is opportunity for him in this department.

The newly-constructed obstacle course has many features.

One student works out in the weight room.

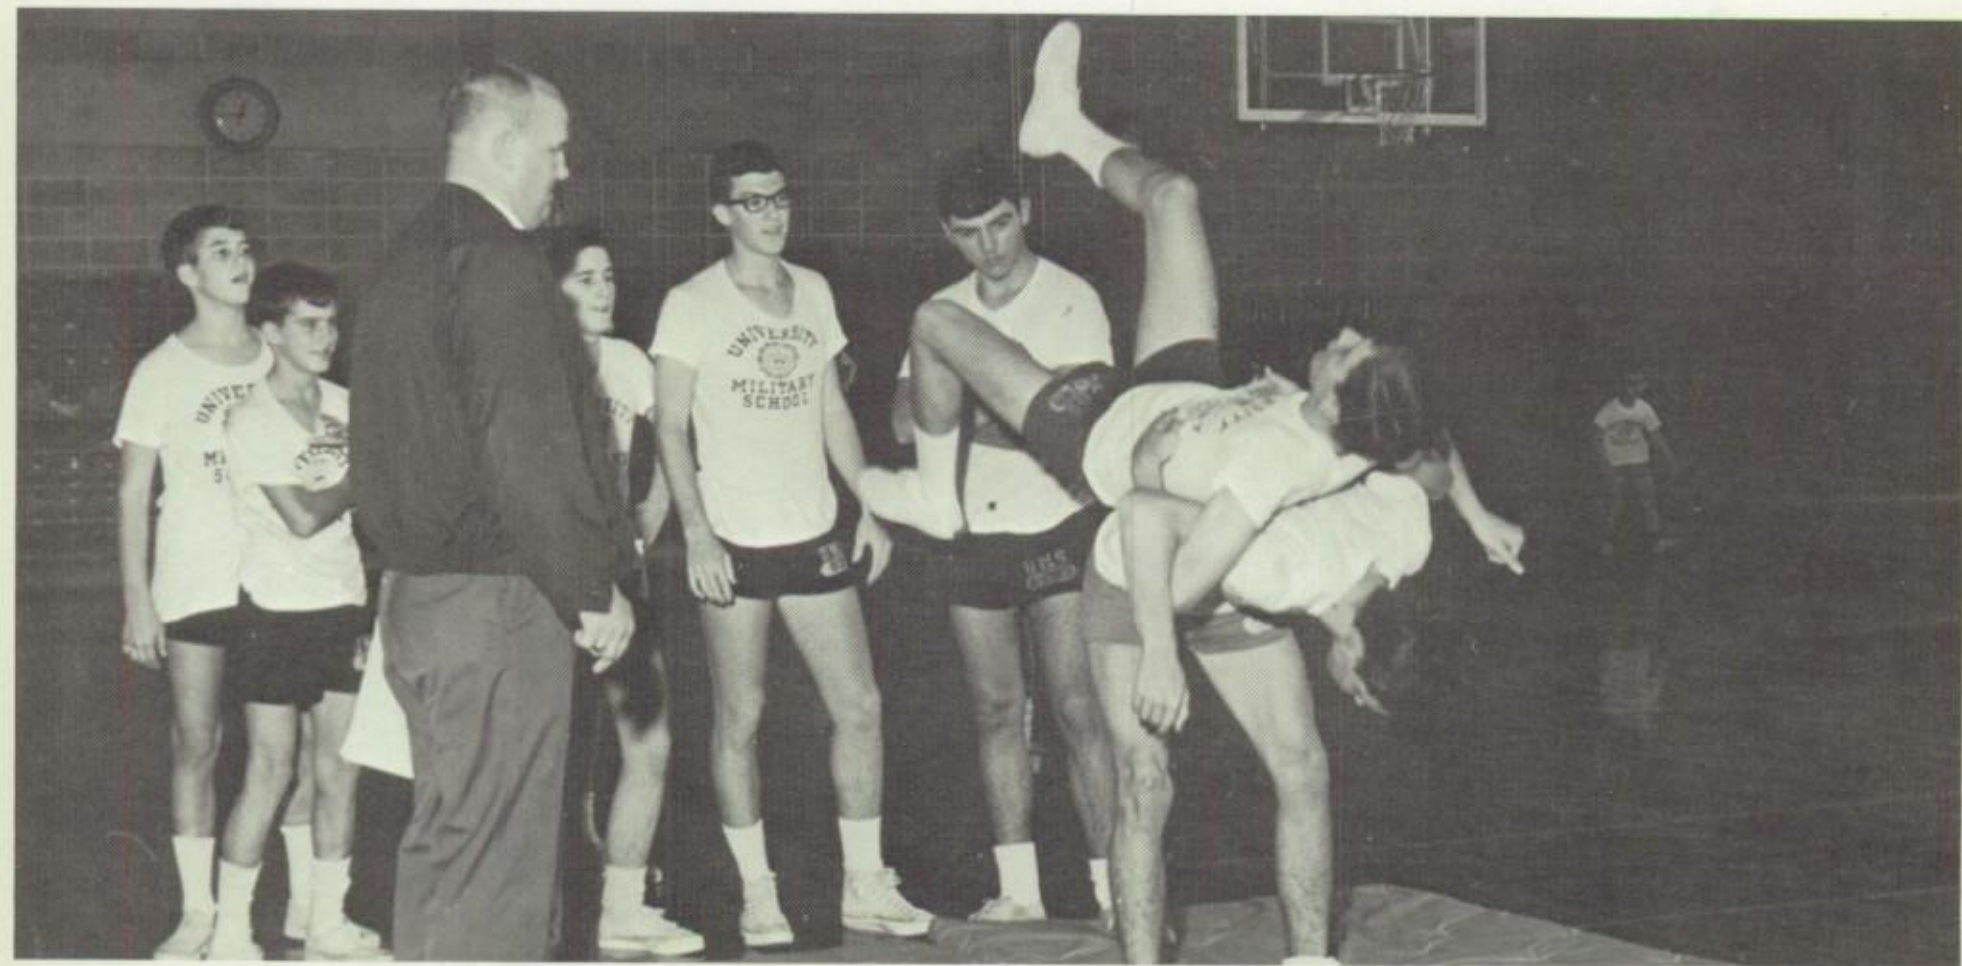

During the past year, the physical education program at U.M.S. has been greatly improved. Heading the PE department, Coach Jim Gatwood has become earnestly concerned with the physical development of young bodies. After studying physical education departments of high schools in Mississippi and Louisiana, our coaching staff has installed a new type of PE program.

This new program consists of tumbling on mats, vaulting on boxes, and running through a newly designed obstacle course. This obstacle course has different types of bars and rings designed to strengthen the upper portion of the body. In addition, the newly completed swimming pool and weight room have increased enthusiasm for the PE program.

The physical education department also includes the athletic program. Head coach of the Varsity Football team is athletic director, Coach Reece Hefner. The Junior Varsity Football team is led by Coach Jerry Gundlach. Varsity Basketball is coached by Coach Joe Dean, and the Junior Varsity by Coach Gundlach. Coach Jim Gatwood coaches the Baseball team, and the Track team is coached by Coach Don Kelly.

"No, my name isn't cheetah."

One type of tumbling is demonstrated on the mats.

CAFETERIA

The difficult job of preparing a hot, nourishing meal for the students falls into the hands of the cafeteria staff. This same staff serves the dormitory students three meals a day, seven days a week. Mrs. Ann Jones is in charge of the U.M.S. cafeteria. Equipment used by the cafeteria staff is owned by the school, but the food and personnel are handled by Morrison's Food Service, Inc.

Mrs. Jones supervises preparation of the salad.

The cafeteria staff provides breakfast and dinner meals for the dormitory students in addition to noon meals for all students.

MAINTENANCE

Major Filippini edges wood for one of his many repair jobs around the school.

Well-known to the "Cadet" staff for his friendliness and his many assistances, maintenance man John Rhone has become almost as much of a fixture around U.M.S. as Simon.

Since the completion of the main building in 1956, the building complex of University Military School has always been kept in excellent condition. Though the students do their part in caring for the campus, this achievement is largely due to the efforts of the maintenance staff, headed by plant engineer Major Bruce Filippini. As more facilities are added, the job of the maintenance staff increases; but the superb condition of the school testifies to their continuing efficiency.

ACTIVITIES

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Proverbs 3:5-6

HOMECOMING

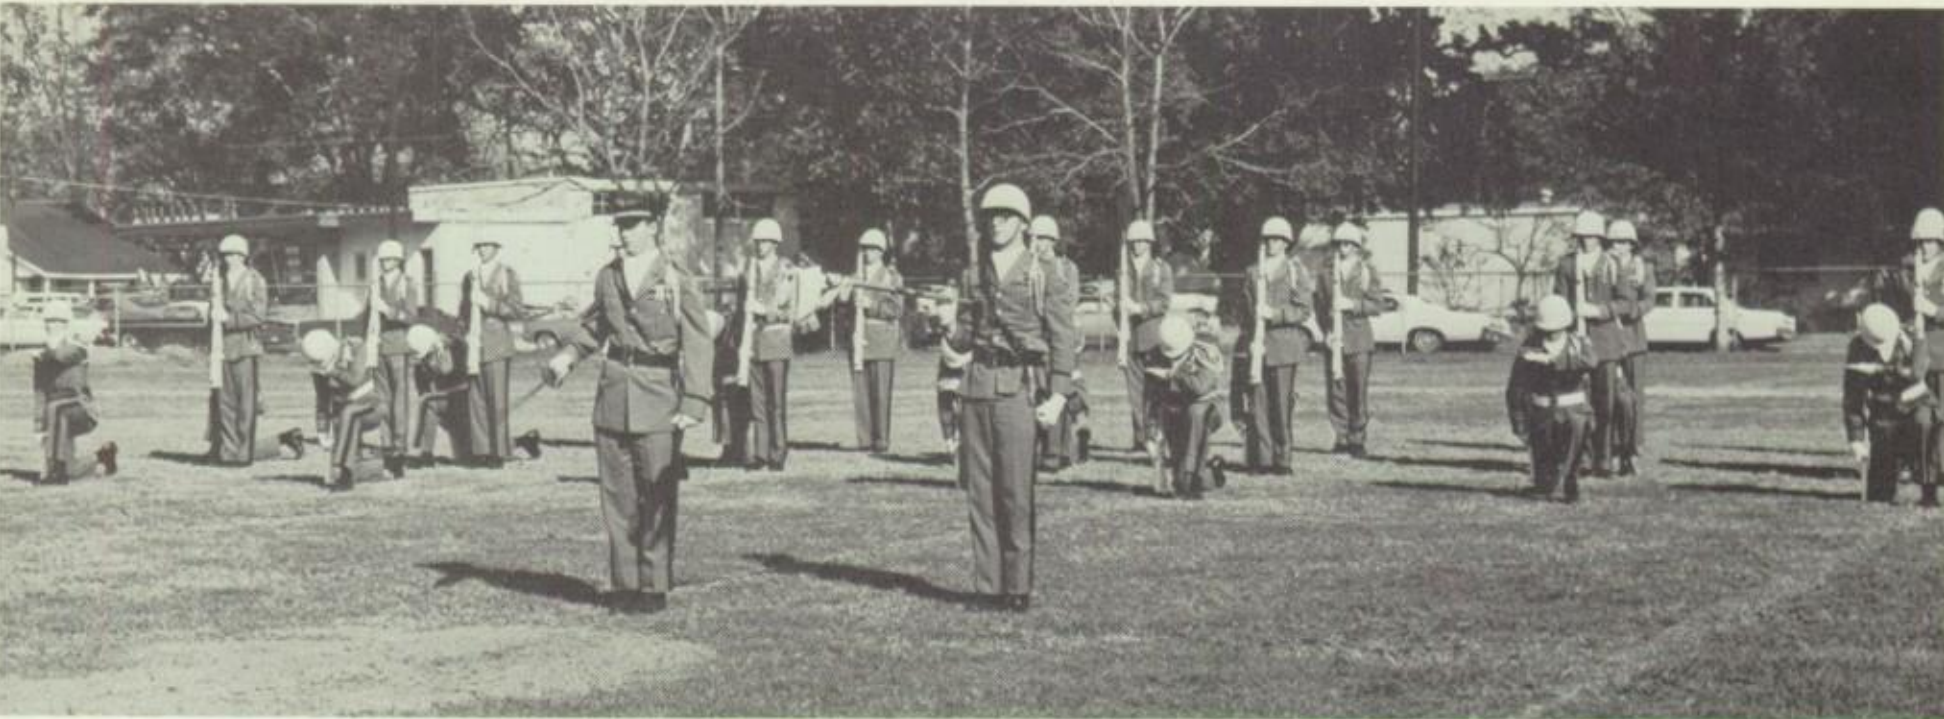

The annual U.M.S. Homecoming Ceremonies were held November 3, 1967. Activities began with the introduction of Homecoming Queen Dianne Harrison and her court. Following the presentation of company sponsors, the officers and staff of the Battalion were introduced. The ceremonies were climaxed by a formal dress parade, after which guests were received during a social hour around the swimming pool. Activities were completed with the U.M.S. vs. McGill football game at Ladd Memorial Stadium.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The 1967 Christmas Program was staged on December 18 by the Choral and Instrumental Music Departments of U.M.S. This annual program, directed by Capt. Thomas Newman and Major Fred Addison, featured music of both a religious and secular nature.

Ed Schaffer performs a trumpet solo during the band's portion of the program.

"BYE BYE BIRDIE"

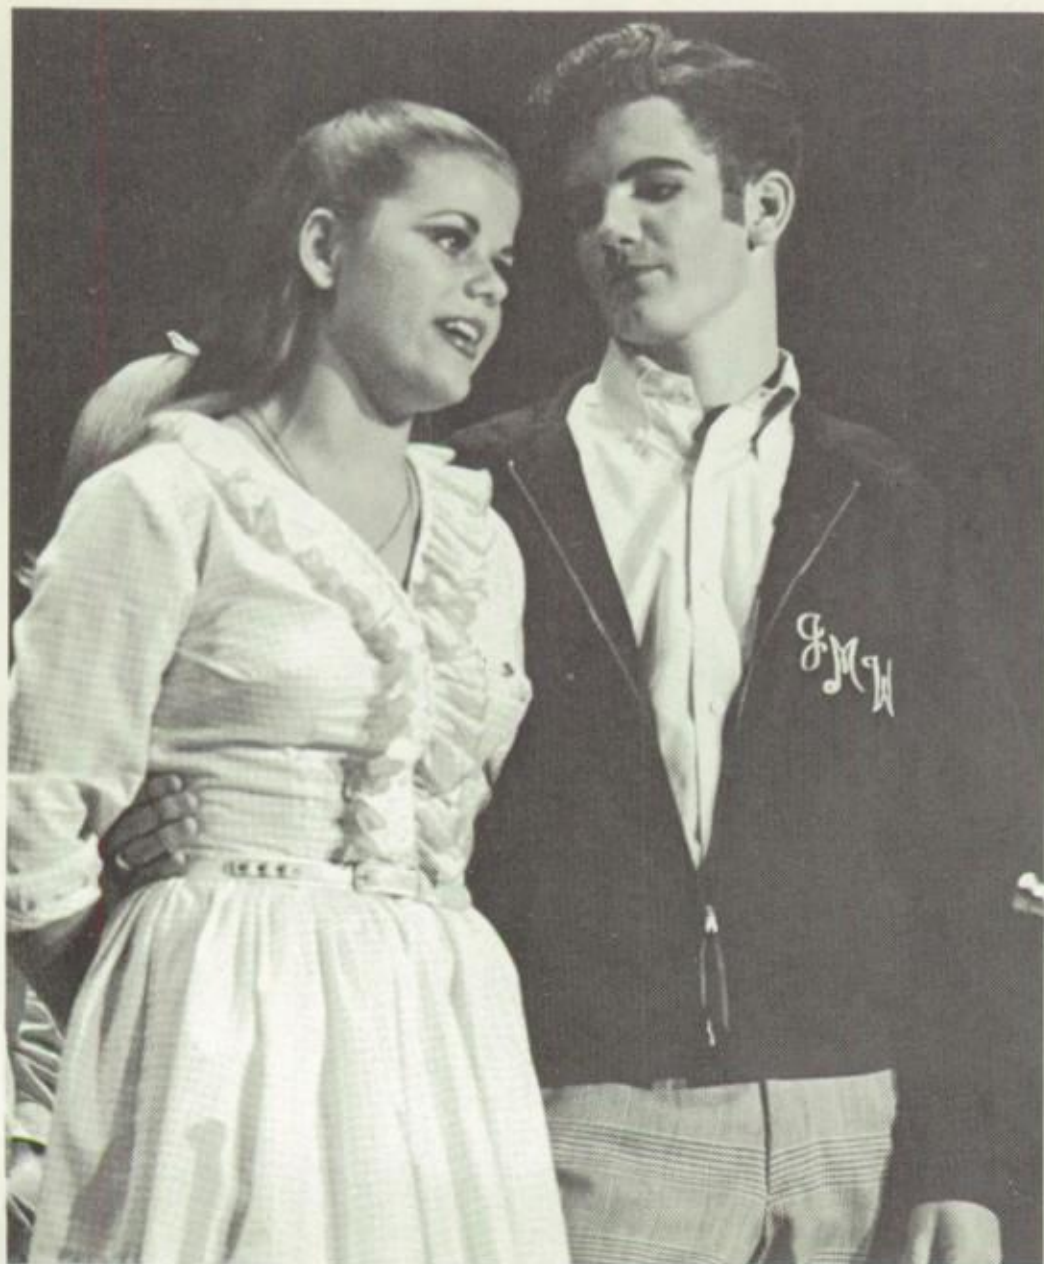

The combined Music Departments of U.M.S. and Wright's School for Girls presented the Broadway musical "Bye Bye Birdie" on April 17 and 18, 1967, in the D.R. Dunlap Auditorium. The production used the original story, by Michael Stewart, and music by Charles Strouse. The entire cast and choruses included ninety-six members from both schools combined. The leading roles were played by: Robby Robertson as Conrad Birdie; Jessica Voran, Kim MacAfee; Johnny Warren, Hugo Peabody; Nita Cassity, Rose Alvarez; Harold Williamson, Albert Peterson; Ruth Strauss, Mae Peterson, Ann Brown, Mrs. MacAfee; and Bruce Lubel, Mr. MacAfee.

Jessica Voran and Jane Wright salute Conrad Birdie.

The tremendous impact of Robby Robertson's singing overwhelms the young people of Sweet Apple.

Kim MacAfee assures Hugo Peabody of her loyalty.

Rose Alvarez and Albert Peterson discuss plans for Conrad.

Mr. MacAfee, Kim MacAfee, and Conrad Birdie appear on the Ed Sullivan Show.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL DAY

The senior class traditionally forms part of the U.M.S. Honor Guard.

Confederate Memorial Day Ceremonies are an annual event held each spring in Mobile. As in past years, the U.M.S. senior class, Band, and Colors paid respect to those who served in the Confederate States Army by forming the honor guard. The guard formed at Julius T. Wright School and marched in formation to Magnolia Cemetery, the site of the services.

MAY DAY

Doug Tappan gets an icy shower.

Robby Robertson awaits his doom.

Seniors are fair game for the other classmen one day a year—May Day. All members of the senior Class are required to be present at this annual event, at which underclassmen pay for the privilege of subjecting the seniors to various indignities such as a good dousing with ice water or a mud bath. The money that is collected is used to defray the cost of the Commencement Hop.

David Smith contemplates his fate.

FIELD DAY

High jump competition is keen in the elementary grades.

Lee Metzger long jumps.

Field Day is an annual holiday at U.M.S. during which cadets compete in track, field, and other athletic activities for various awards. "A" Company was the winning company in the Senior Battalion, and "F" Company won in the Primary Battalion. Individually, Andy Anderson was the overall winner with twenty points. "Peanuts" Walton was in second place, and Greer Radcliff in third. Following the athletic competition was a picnic for cadets and their parents.

COMMENCEMENT HOP

Cadet Captain Robert Lee Hyman receives the award for his winning "D" Company.

The annual Commencement Hop, the climactic social event of the school year, was again held at the Mobile Country Club and last year featured music by the Villagers. In keeping with tradition, seniors reserved the first dance for their mothers. The glamor of the arch of crossed sabers, the pretty girls, and the gaiety of the entire evening made the date memorable.

Seniors and their mothers begin the opening dance.

COMMENCEMENT DRILL

"C" Company executes its fancy command.

The 1966-67 military year was climaxed by the Seventy-Fourth Annual Commencement Drill at Ladd Memorial Stadium. The highlight was the Senior Battalion Company Competition, which was won by "D" Company, under the command of Cadet Captain Robert Lee Hyman. Platoon Competition was won by the Second Platoon of "B" Company, commanded by Cadet First Lieutenant Craig Campbell Gault, and the Squad Competition was won by the First Squad, First Platoon, of "C" Company, under the leadership of Cadet Sergeant Lloyd Woodson Moss.

In the Primary Battalion, Company Competition was won by "G" Company, commanded by Cadet Captain Richard Dean Anders, and Platoon Competition was won by the First Platoon of "F" Company, under the leadership of Cadet Second Lieutenant David Michael Smith.

Randy Speas of "A" Company won the Individual Competitive, and best drilled cadets from "B", "C", and "D" Companies, respectively, were: George Whiting, John Bailey, and Kim Weber.

BACCALAUREATE

The Reverend William S. Mann, Baccalaureate speaker.

The 1967 graduates were the first to attend Baccalaureate Service in the D. R. Dunlap Chapel-Auditorium. This fact lent special significance to a ceremony that is meaningful in the life of every senior.

Surely the blessing of a graduate's hopes and aspirations and the culmination of his efforts are properly marked with a service which directs his eyes to his Father for guidance for the future and expresses gratitude for His steadfast care.

GRADUATION

The graduation exercises of the U.M.S. Class of 1967 were held in the recently completed D. R. Dunlap Chapel-Auditorium.

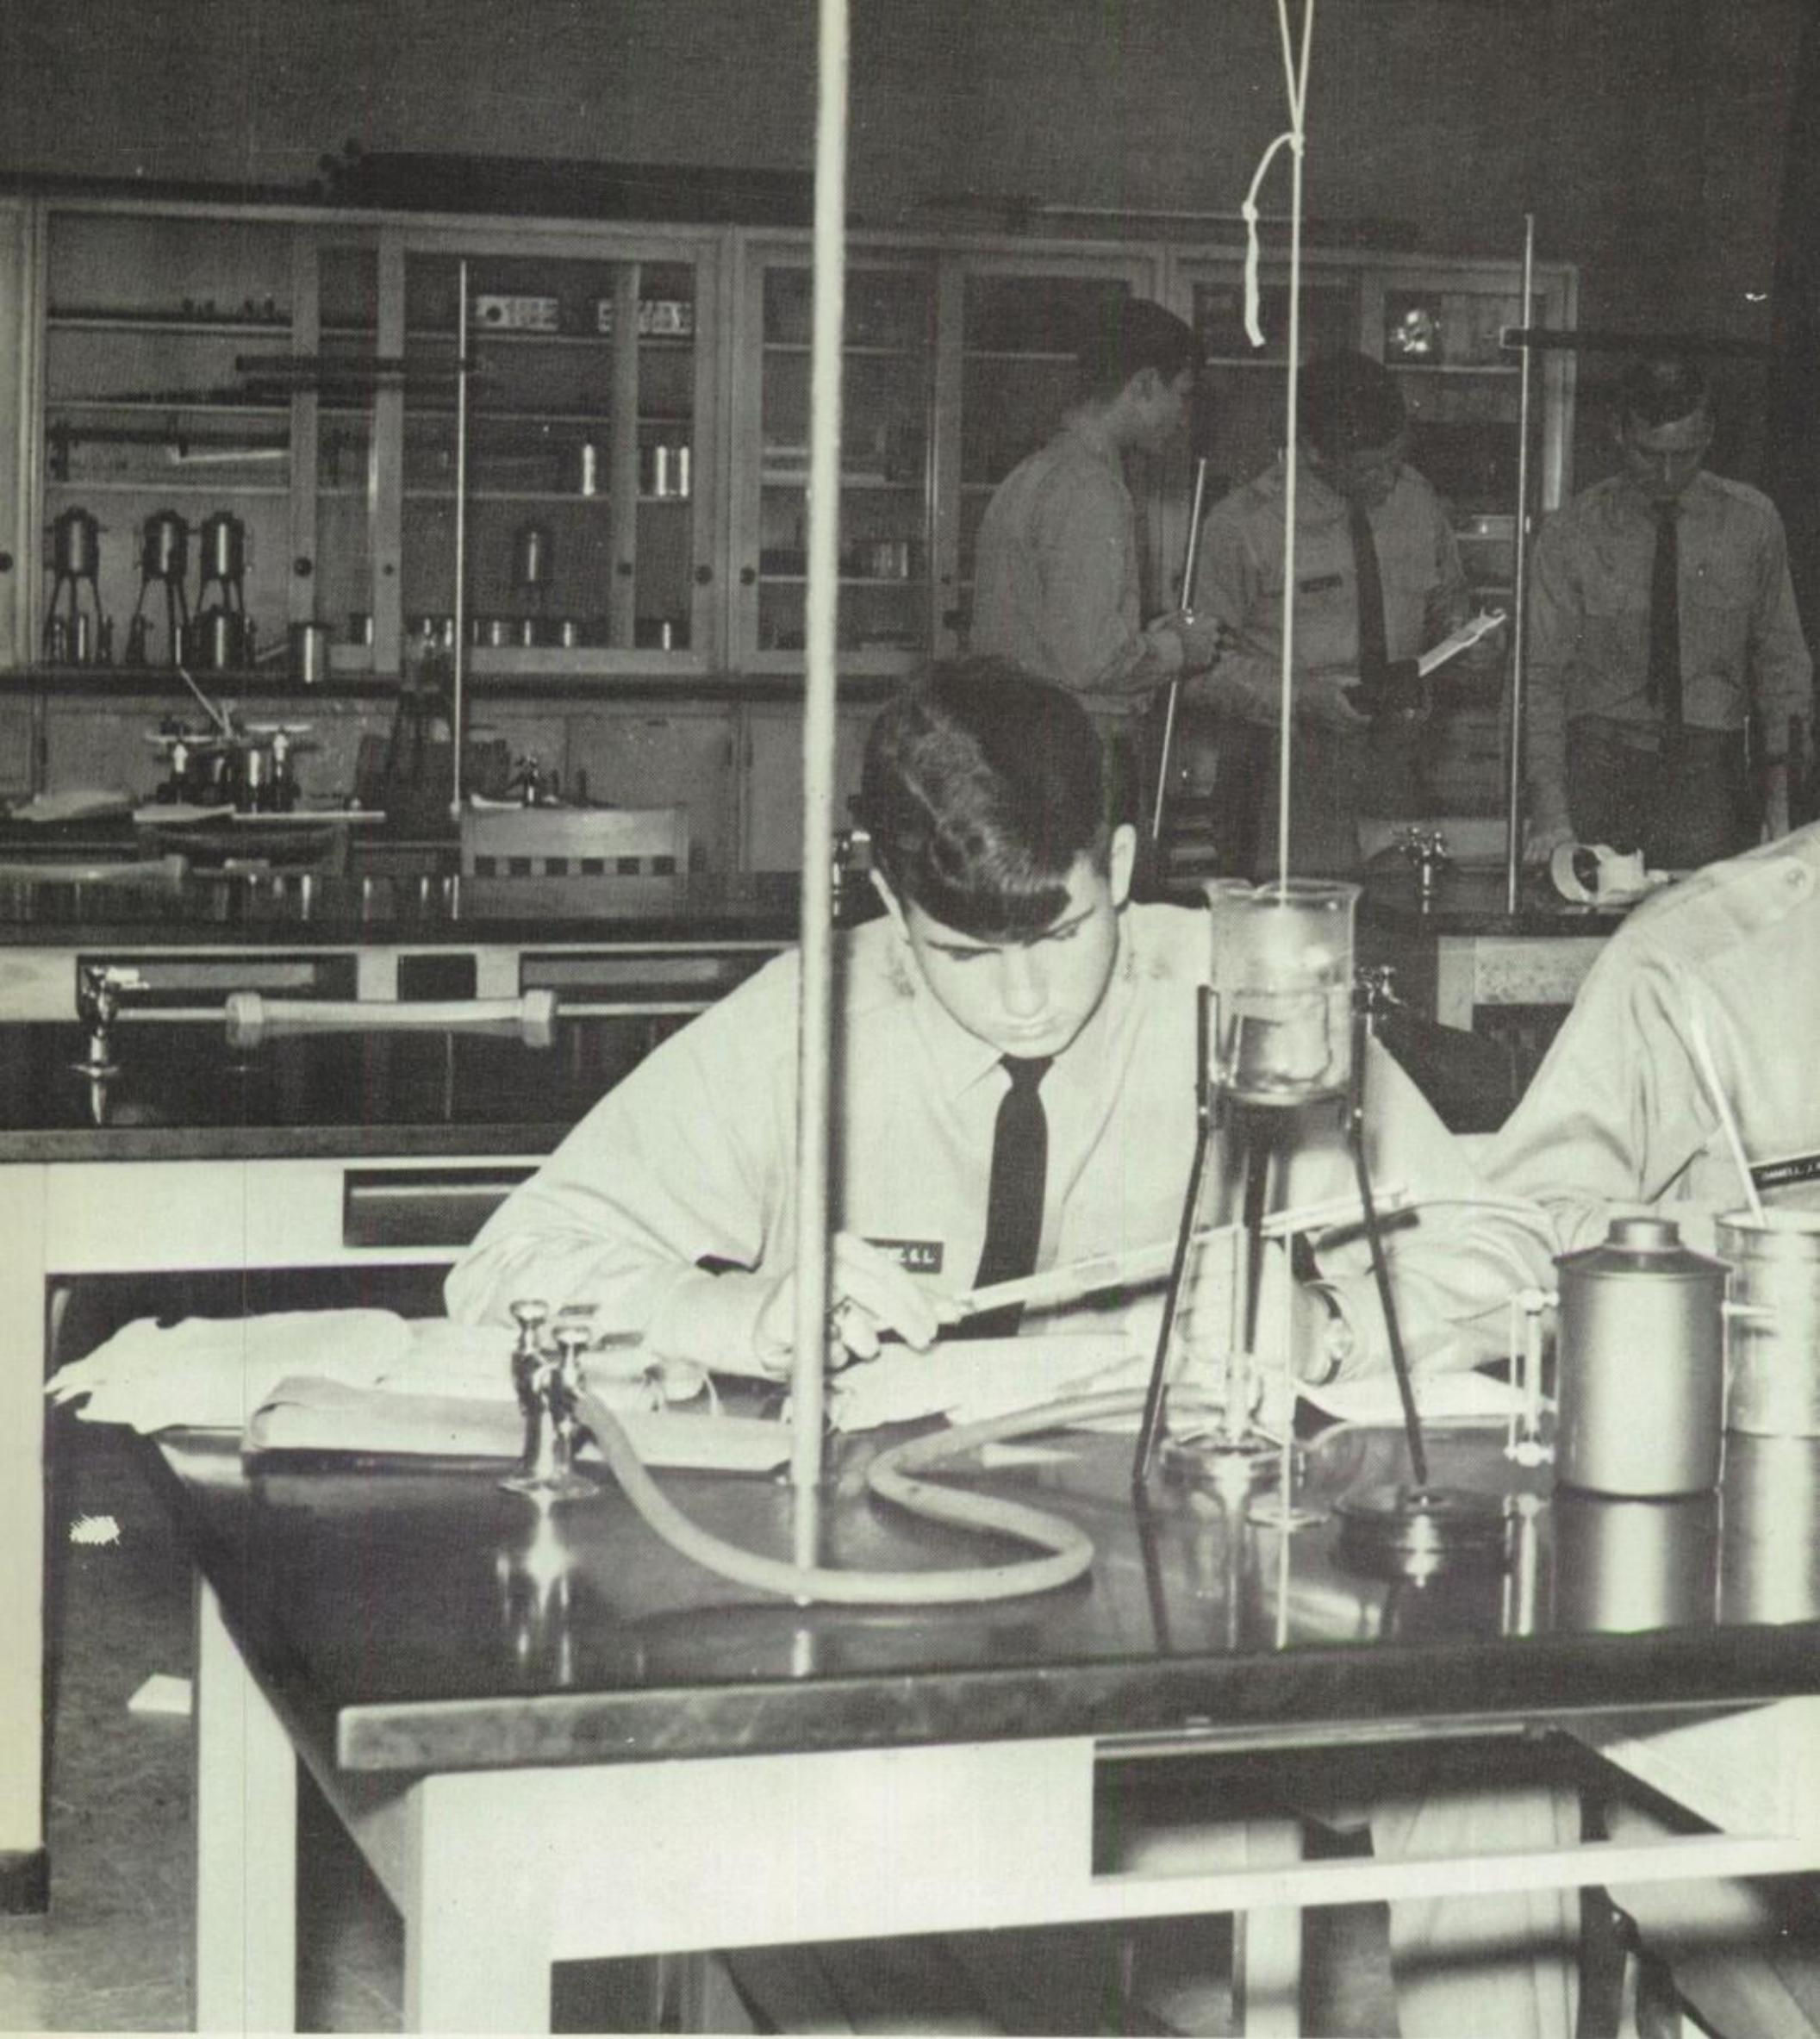

In addition to the presentation of diplomas to the senior class, academic awards were given to members of the Cadet Corps. The respective awards and recipients were: Joseph Richard Mighell, III Memorial Award, Cadet Sgt. Lloyd Woodson Moss; Wallace Sherman Clark, III Memorial Award, Cadet Sgt. First Class John Movius Warren, Jr.; James W. Rainer Memorial Award, Cadet First Lieutenant Fred Acton Coats; William S. Pape Memorial Award, Cadet Corporal Jerry Dean Porter; Sage Lyons Memorial Award, Cadet Captain John Crawford Hope, III; Julius Tutwiler Wright Memorial Award, Cadet Major Frederick Smith Crown, Jr.; Sewanee Club Award, Cadet Sgt. First Class John Ira Bailey, Jr.

The Key Club selected Miss Debbie Gehlen as its sweetheart for 1968.

Jim Daniell and Clyde Rouse sell programs to Curry Bedsole and Louise Adams at the Robertsdale game.

Since 1958, the U.M.S. Key Club has been a member of the nationwide service organization Key Club International. All member clubs seek to serve the school and community; and the U.M.S. club, under the leadership of John Donald, has been particularly active this year. The Key Club has aided Mobile by sponsoring a Halloween party for children at Mobile General Hospital and also by distributing letters for the Mobile Neighborhood Improvement Council.

At school, the Key Club sells programs and pennants at all home football games, prints and distributes the student directory, and operates the concession stands at basketball games. For two years the club has supported an orphaned child in Viet Nam. Members attend rallies and weekly Kiwanis Club luncheons to keep in touch with other Key Clubs and with civic affairs.

The City Commission awarded the Key Club a plaque for the service the club provided the city. Major Moore presents it to President John Donald.

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council has the duty of informing the student body of the precepts of the Honor System. It seeks not only to enforce the system but also to inspire students to support and follow its code.

As stated in the constitution of the Honor Council, the Honor System is "a code of ethics governing the conduct of the students at U.M.S. in all matters pertaining to personal honesty and integrity." The spirit of U.M.S. is based largely on this code.

The Julius Tutwiler Wright Chapter of the National Honor Society is composed of members of the Junior and Senior classes who have maintained an academic average of 88 or above for their freshman and sophomore years of high school. In addition to this superior average, other qualifications which candidates must meet are character, leadership, and service. Bevo Beaven is President of the society, which is composed of fourteen Juniors and twenty Seniors. Major A. M. Hinson is serving his first year as faculty advisor.

CADET STAFF

Freshman and Sophomore "Cadet" staff members aided the Junior and Senior editors in drawing the various sections of the 1968 "Cadet" in order to meet production deadlines scheduled throughout the beginning five months of the school year. All members contributed many hours of work during the summer and after school; but especial recognition is due John Morris, chief photographer, whose work continued through the entire year.

The staff of the "Cadet" of 1968 has attempted to present a book which in many ways breaks from the past in its form but still retains the quality of previous editions. We hope that you, the reader, are pleased with this effort.

The 1968 "Cadet" was headed by Editor John Bailey. Associate Editor Lloyd Moss and Business Manager Guy Rutledge assisted him.

"Cadet" general staff members are: Coats, W.; Benson, M.; Twitty, T.; Platt, R.; Cain, R.; Dismukes, G.; Whiting, G.; Trotter, C.; Nichols, J.; Porter, J.; Gewin, H. Not Pictured: Hinson, S.; Johnston, C.; Mintz, A.

For the 1967-68 school year, the eleven members of the U.M.S. debate team will discuss the topic "Resolved: That the Congress should establish uniform regulations controlling investigation procedures." Under the supervision of Captain W. F. Redd, the team will participate in many tournaments throughout the South. Other than the Spring Hill College and University of South Alabama contest in Mobile, the squad hopes to travel to Birmingham, Escambia, and Atlanta during the year.

AUDITORIUM STAFF

Members of the Auditorium Staff are Brian Delaney, Jack Nichols, Guy Rutledge, Max Benson, Jim Daniell, Chris Gewin, John Bailey, Bruce Lubel, and Glen Dismukes.

John Bailey, Guy Rutledge, and Jim Daniell prepare the 30,000-watt dimmer box for a production.

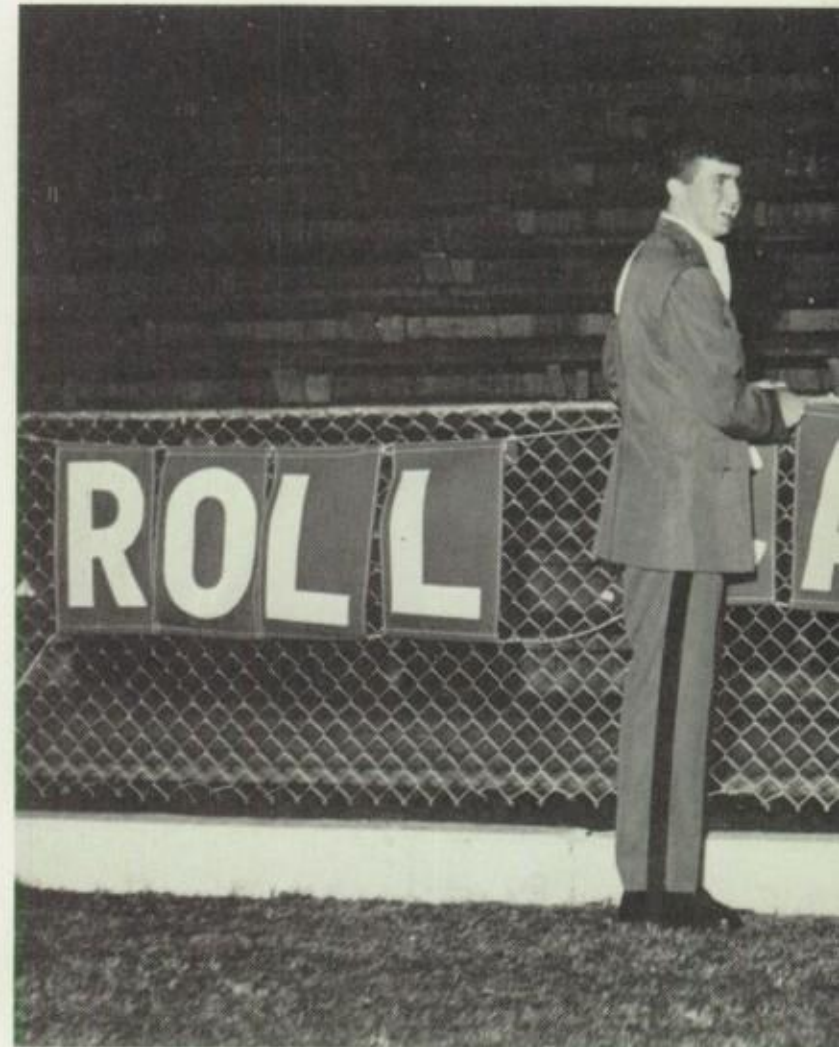

The staff of the David R. Dunlap Chapel-Auditorium has managed all productions in the new structure since its completion in 1966. Various civic and cultural organizations have used the auditorium, and the stage crew has been able to meet all their needs.

The Mobile Opera Guild Work-Shop staged the operetta "Naughty Marietta" at U.M.S., and the combined choruses of U.M.S. and the Julius T. Wright School for Girls performed "Bye Bye Birdie" in the spring of 1967. The young organization is looking forward to greater duties in the future.

Council's major project for the school year.

Under the leadership of President Johnny Warren, the Student Council sponsored many projects during the 1967-68 school year. The well-planned United Fund Campaign yielded a ninety-eight percent student participation. The Student Council promoted school spirit by selling buttons and ribbons, by sponsoring sock hops and busses to out-of-town football games, and by erecting posters about the games.

Student Council members printed and distributed basketball programs and handled the polls for all student elections. The group also sponsored the annual U.M.S. Father-Son Banquet, having as their speaker for 1967 Dr. Leslie S. Wright, President of Stanford University.

Under the direction of co-editors Carroll Barrett and Bevo Beaven, student reporters compile information about the school and its organizations for publication in the "Battalion Review." Editorials concern not only school situations but also problems of the state and nation; and the student editors often ask distinguished guest editorialists to contribute to the paper. The "Battalion Review," in addition to giving students an opportunity to exercise their literary talents, provides a factual and up-to-date account of U.M.S. and its students.

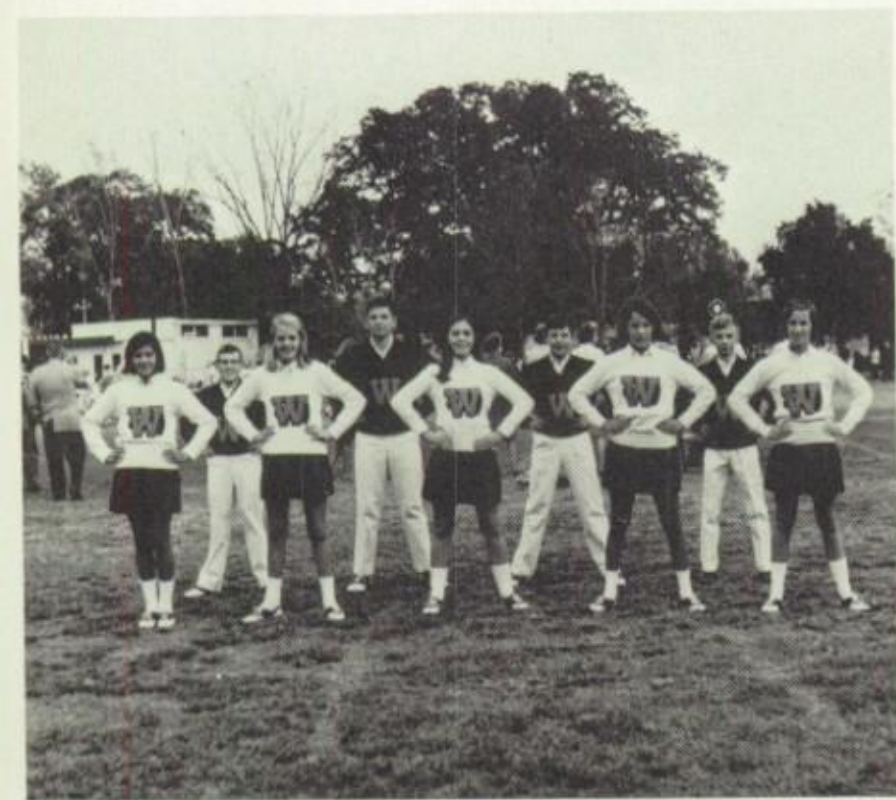

Co-editors Carroll Barrett and Bevo Beaven, along with Business Manager Burton Clark, examine a recent issue of the "Battalion Review."

CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity Cheerleaders are: Karen Outlaw, Dianne Harrison, Jessica Voran, Linda Trainor, Pier Peterson, Jan Walker, David Quina, Harold Williamson, David Anders, and Herbert Cole.

The "Cadet" devotes a page to the Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders this year in recognition of the contribution which they have made to the improvement of school spirit. These groups began practice during the summer in preparation for appearances at U.M.S. pep rallies and sporting events, and the student body is grateful for their efforts.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders (above left) were a new addition this year. They are: Cathy Blacksher, Linda Lubel, Jean Outlaw, Ashley Lang, Julie Wright, Danny Hartwell, Alison Reed, Ned Atkinson, Bradley Byrne, and Marc Moulton.

Through a season containing both ups and downs, the 1967 Cadets compiled a 5-5 record. The Bulldogs played home games at Ladd Stadium in addition to trips to Foley, Theodore, and Columbus, Mississippi. Under Head Coach Reece Hefner were Coaches Jim Gatwood, Joe Dean, and Don Kelly, who coached backfield, line, and end, respectively. The coaches, team, and boosters should be congratulated for another outstanding year of football at U.M.S.

CADETS HALT TIGERS 13-7

The Cadets began their season with a 13-7 victory over the Bay Minette Tigers. The Tigers scored first with an 11-yard run by Randy Buck. The Tigers were threatening again on the Cadet 30 when Joe Bullard intercepted a pass and raced 75 yards for the score. The extra point failed and Bay Minette led 7-6. Bullard scored again to cinch the Cadet victory as he ran back a Tiger punt 55 yards. J.O. Jackson added the extra point and the game ended 13-7.

CADETS DUMP SHAW 28-0

Led by the running of Bud Urquhart, the U.M.S. Cadets downed the Shaw Rebels 28-0 in their second win of the season. Urquhart totaled 98 yards rushing as he went to paydirt from the 4 and the 10, and Larry White and Robbie Turner both scored from the one. Joe Bullard pleased the crowd when he ran back a Shaw punt 45 yards to the 3 yard line. Much of the credit for this fine game goes to the Cadet defensive standouts Chuck Mintz, Allen Cox, Jawn Marques, and Mike Milling.

DAVIDSON BREAKS JINX 21-6

U.M.S. lost its fourth game of the season to Davidson 21-6, breaking a five-year jinx. Davidson scored first on a 40-yard drive with Wade Boyette making the touchdown and extra point. The Cadets made their only touchdown of the night when Allen Cox recovered a fumble on the Davidson 23 yard line. Garrett Miller took it in for 6 points and Urquhart missed the point after. Boyette scored 7 more points as the half ended 14-6. The only score in the second half came when Boyette capped a 74 yard drive. The game soon ended with the score 21-6.

PANTHERS EDGE CADETS 13-12

U.M.S. suffered its first loss of the season to Murphy by a score of 13-12. Bud Urquhart scored the first touchdown after the Cadets recovered a fumble on the Panther 38 yard line. Murphy then scored twice on a 63-yard drive and a fumble recovery in the end zone by Cary Prather. Urquhart tallied the second U.M.S. touchdown, but his pass for the extra point was not accepted and the game ended 13-12, a real heartbreaker.

Bullard is caught in heavy traffic.

COLUMBUS DROPS BULLDOGS 28-6

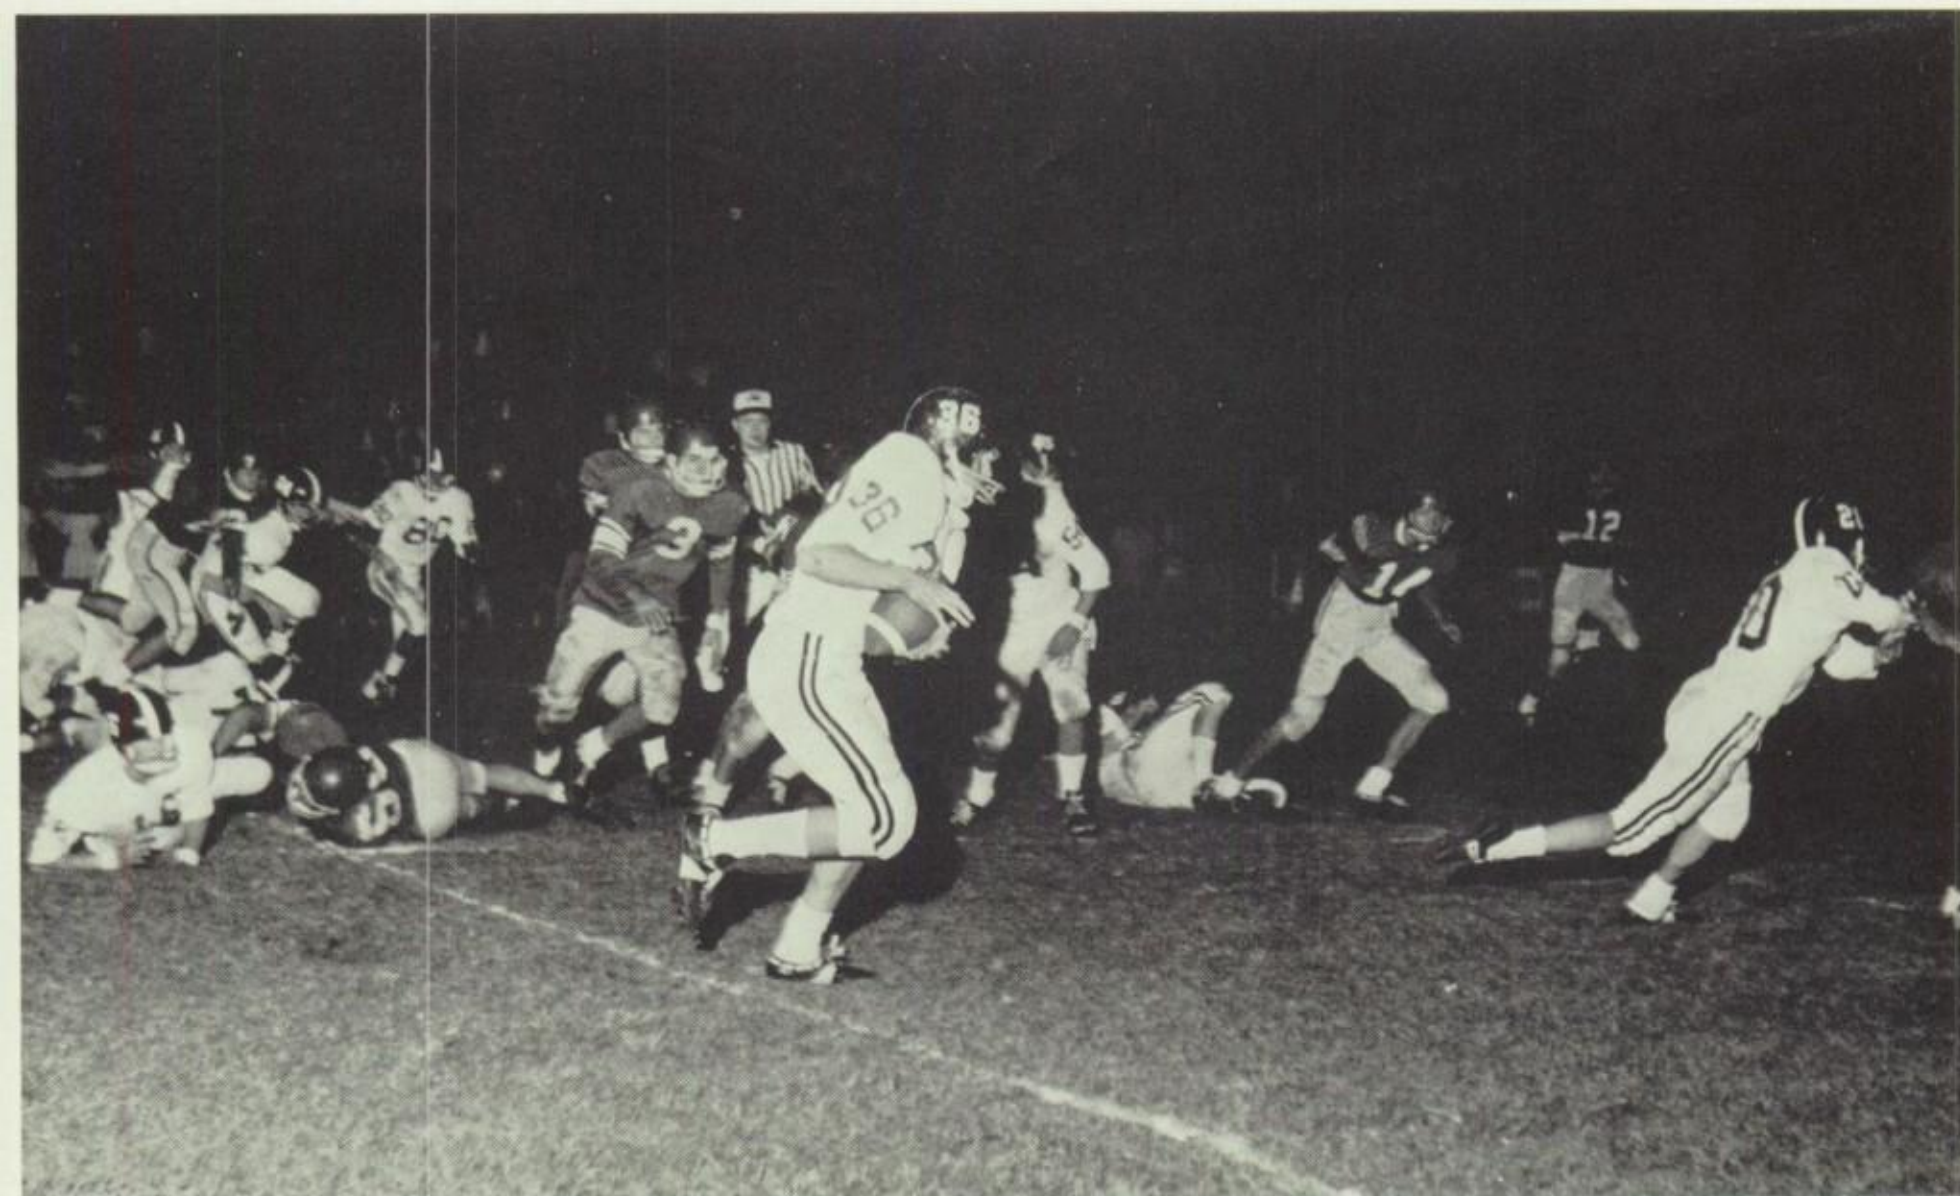

Even though the trip to Lee High School in Columbus was an enjoyable one, the Cadets failed to upset this fifth-ranked team in Mississippi. The Bulldogs were held scoreless in the first half and made their first tally in the third period. Double-covered Joe Bullard outran the defensive backs to nab a White pass for 62 yards and the score. U.M.S. was unable to get the point-after. The final score of the night came when the Lee quarterback took the ball in from the one, ending the game 28-6.

BULLDOGS TREE BOBCATS 19-3

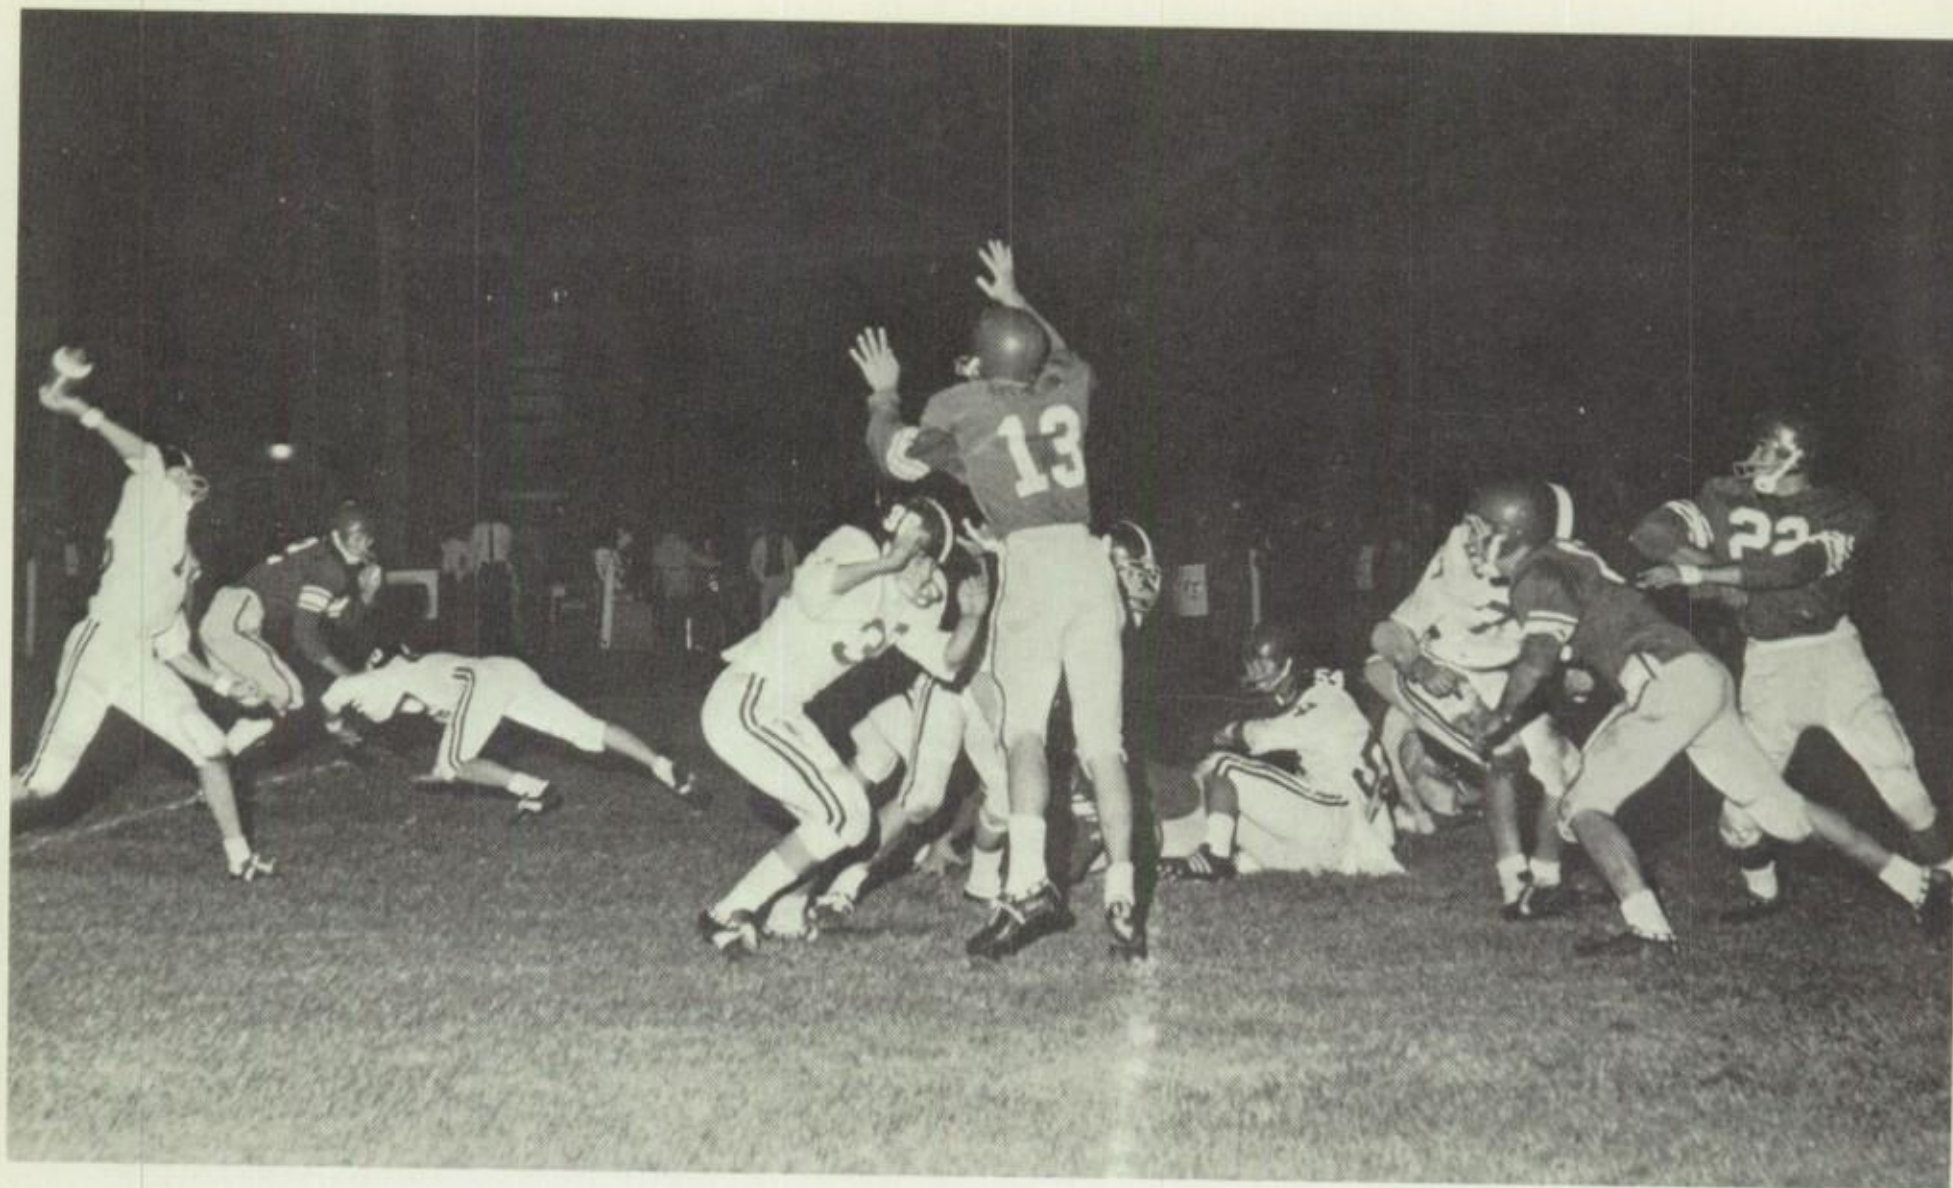

The Cadets came back into the winning column by beating Theodore 19-3. The Bobcats scored three points on a field goal in the first period, but they never again threatened the determined Cadet team. Alden Davis, who substituted for injured Bud Urquhart, led the Bulldogs' running attack. Speedster Joe Bullard ran back the second-half kickoff for his second score of the night.

FOLEY STOPS CADETS 14-0

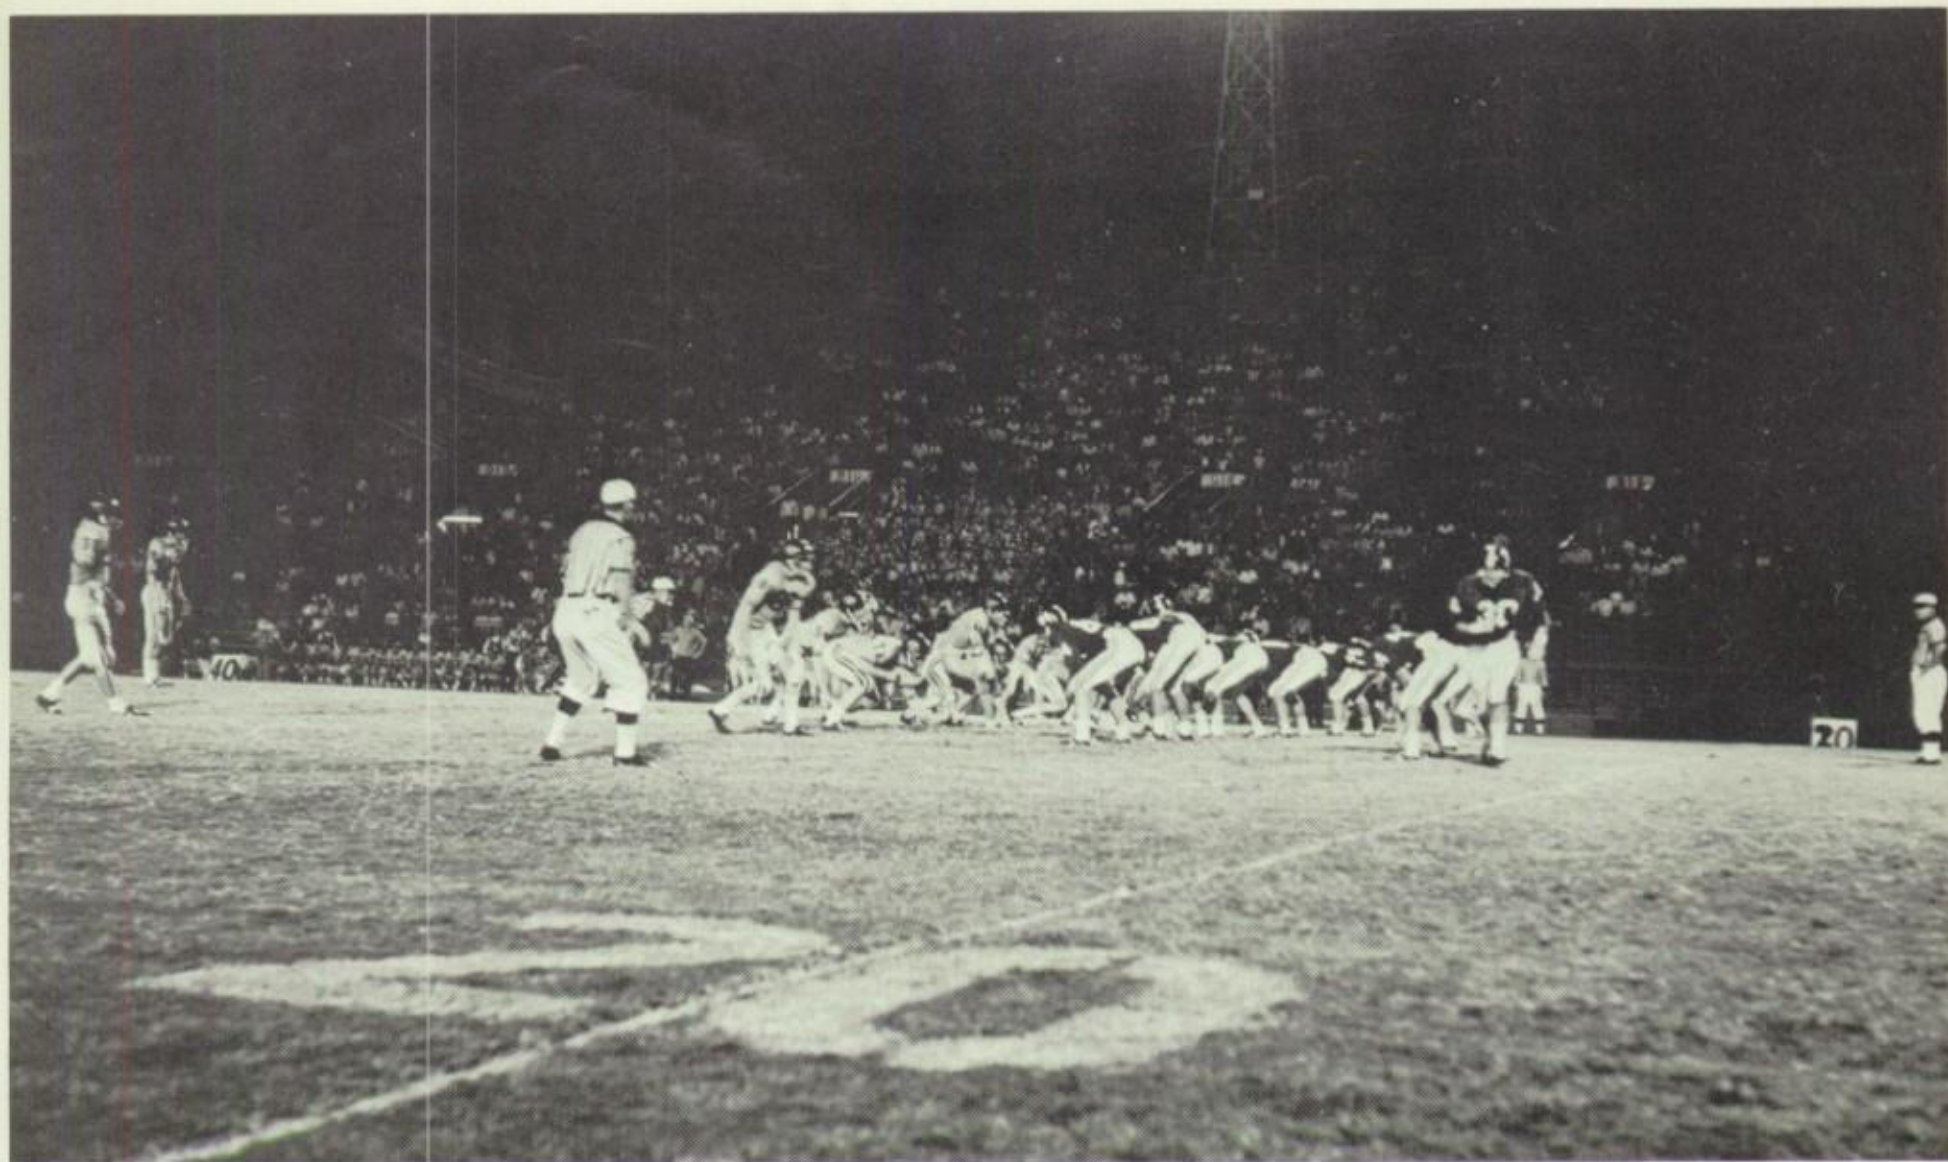

Both U.M.S. and Foley teams were characterized best by their defensive play. On the opening kickoff, the Cadets drove down to the Foley 30 where White's pass was intercepted. Later in the second quarter U.M.S. lost the ball on a fumble on their own 20 yard line. The Foley line then drove in for the score. The half ended 7-0. The entire second half was a defensive struggle. Finally Foley again managed to get paydirt and the night ended Foley 14, U.M.S. 0.

McGILL TRIMS CADETS 9-6

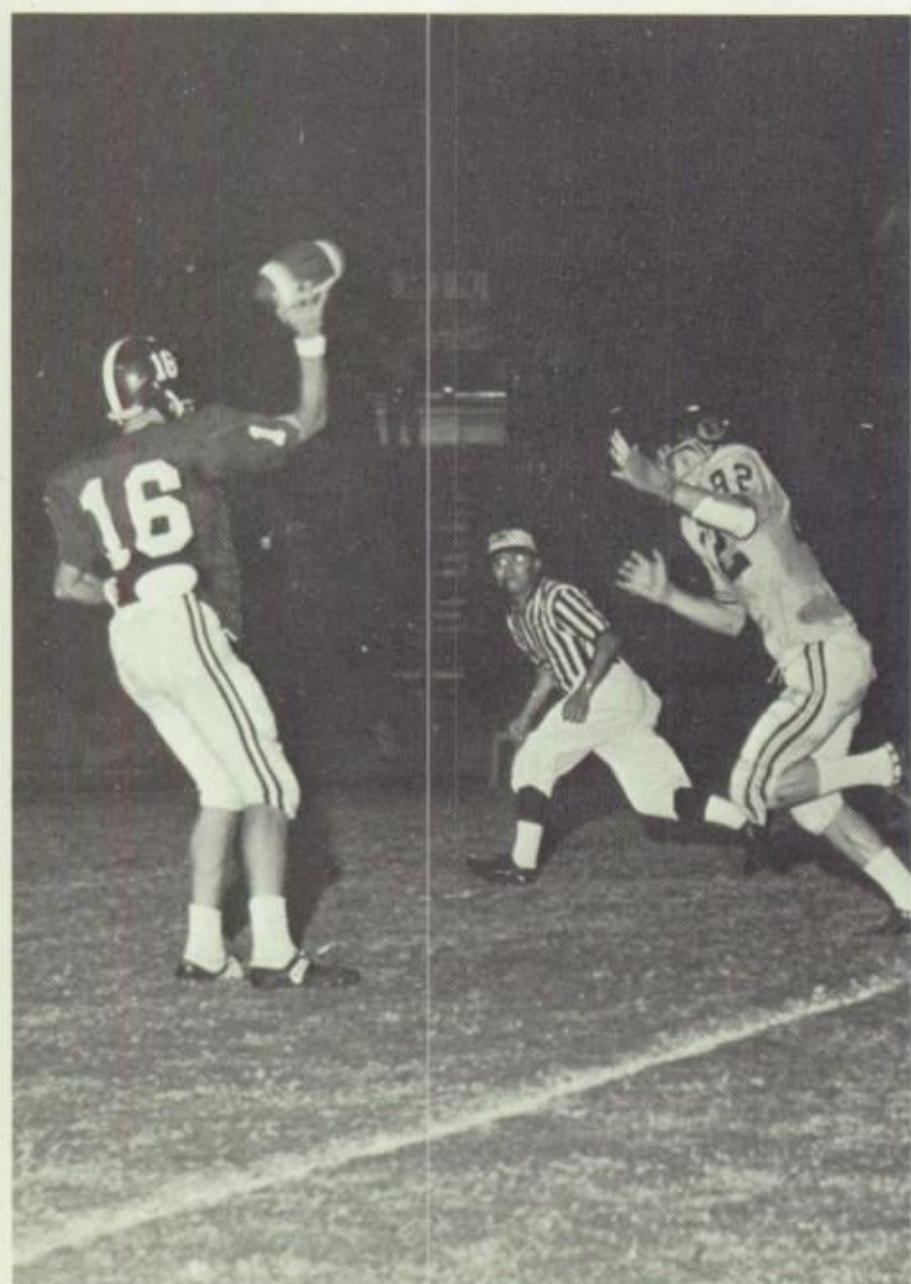

On the rainy Homecoming evening, U.M.S. defensive standouts Mintz, Trotter, Scott, Milling, and Marques held the McGill Yellow-jackets scoreless until the final period. Urquhart scored after several attempts when a McGill punt was blocked. McGill then scored after a 57-yard drive to lead 7-6. With time running out, the Cadets had to gamble two series of downs inside their own 25 and were forced to yield 2 points, ending the game 9-6.

Bullard cuts to the inside.

Cadets set against Robertsdale.

U.M.S. WHIPS ROBERTSDALE 28-0

U.M.S. scored all four quarters to beat the Robertsdale Bears 28-0. Urquhart scored after a 64-yard drive and Bengie McKinney kicked the extra point. The first half ended with the Cadets scoring from a Robertsdale fumble. The third quarter score came when Joe Bullard lobbed a pass to tight end Jawn Marques. Finally, Garrett Miller took a middle screen pass and raced 30 yards for the last tally.

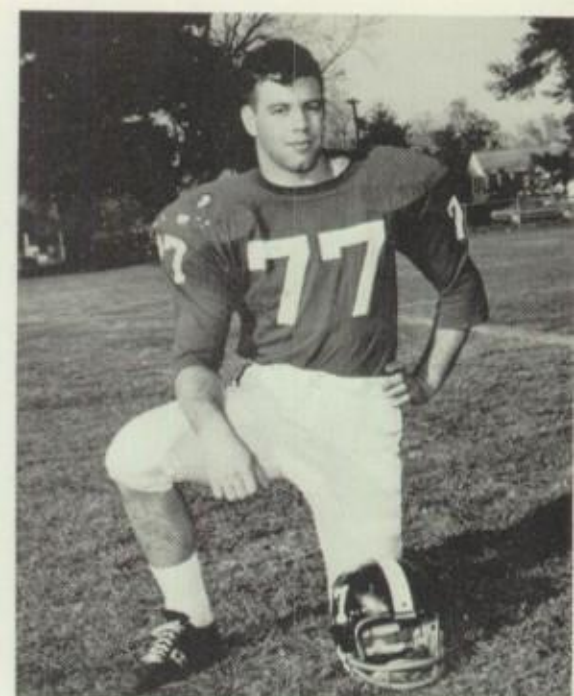

CADETS BEAT VIKINGS 9-7

The U.M.S. Cadets ended the season with a 9-7 victory over the Vikings from Mary Montgomery. The Vikings scored from a Cadet fumble in the first period and maintained the lead until the fourth period. U.M.S. was on the scoreboard in the second quarter when a Viking center resulted in a safety. With 8 minutes left, an 80-yard scoring drive was capped when Urquhart took a screen pass from White and rambled a spectacular 43 yards to paydirt. McKinney's conversion attempt was successful, ending the 1967 Cadet season with a 5-5 record.

Coach Joe Dean's 1967-68 basketball team began its season slowly but managed to come up with a few big wins. Under the leadership of four seniors—Joe Bullard, Jeff Porter, Terry Roberts, and Jawn Marques—the Cadets did not post a winning season but did play in each game with an excellent effort. The student body gave greater than usual support throughout the entire season, and this was appreciated by the team.

The 1967 Track Team had the most successful season in the history of the school as they broke records from Tuscaloosa to New Orleans. The Cadets won the Senior Bowl Meet, Southeastern Relays, and the Conference and District Championships and were number three in the state.

Track Coach Don Kelly recognizes many for their outstanding efforts. Johnny Walton broke the conference, district, and state records for the mile with his best time being 4:27.3. The distance, sprint, and 440 relay teams consisting of Roberts, Bullard, Sharp, Brothers, Walton, Urquhart, and McMullen returned trophies from the Alabama and Southeastern Relays. Bob Montiel broke the discus and shot records at the MCCC and district meets. Allen Cox was conference high and low hurdle champion, Urquhart and McMullen were district long jump champions, and Hill and Hamilton held the district pole vault records.

The 1967 baseball team began their season slowly but did come through with an 8-7 winning record. Elected to the All-Conference team were seniors Jeff Sims and Lindsay Walker and sophomore Mark Reed.

Winning five games, Jeff Sims was also selected as the leading pitcher. Coach Gatwood had many junior and sophomore team members who returned for the 1968 season.

Members of the 1967 Tennis Team were: Gerhardt, J., Taylor, W., Slaton, H., Rouse, R., Dismukes, G., Olen, S., Koffler, W. Not Pictured: Bullard, J., Grady, D.

The U.M.S. Tennis Team enjoyed a successful 1967 season. It completely dominated the competition in the city, winning the district tournament and finishing with its second-straight undefeated season. The team then competed in the Southern High School tournament in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and in the State High School tournament in Sylacauga, Alabama. Though the team did not do extremely well in these tournaments, the members are looking forward to participating again in 1968 and hope to enjoy more success. The team did not lose any members and did gain a good player (Robert Rouse), so hopes are bright for 1968.

OUR THANKS

The "Cadet" Staff of 1968 wishes to thank these people and organizations whose many assistances have made possible the production of this yearbook. Our grateful appreciation goes to:

The First National Bank of Mobile, for the use of their building as a vantage point from which to obtain the liner photograph, and especially to Mr. John W. Stephenson for his personal assistances in this effort;

The First Baptist Church of Mobile, for the photograph of their sanctuary which appears on page 12, and especially to its pastor, Dr. Howard M. Reaves, who kindly provided the Biblical references for the division pages;

McEachern of Mobile, Inc., our professional photographers, who were ever willing when we needed them, and particularly to Mssrs. Bob Smith and Jimmy Thompson who were most closely involved with this yearbook;

Mr. Ernie Crates, our Inter-Collegiate Press representative, who was ever patient with our oft-mistaken efforts and who aided us greatly with advice and instruction;

The Mobile Fire Department, particularly the officers and men of Station No. 23 for the use of their engine in the picture on page 8;

Parrott Photography, Mr. & Mrs. L. W. Cantrell, for various photos throughout the book and for their assistance with the senior portraits;

Mr. & Mrs. Earle W. Long, for the use of their gardens as the setting for the pictures of the military sponsors;

The Alabama Battleship Commission, for permission to use the picture of the U.S.S. Alabama which appears on page 8;

The Historic Mobile Preservation Society, for the photograph of their Oakleigh headquarters on page 9;

The administration and faculty of U.M.S., who gave us every assistance and more than ever before of the freedom needed to make possible many of the features included in this book;

Captain William G. Treutel, our faculty adviser, who was always willing to proof pages and to give aid and advice where needed; and finally

The Advertisers and Patrons who responded greatly to assure the "Cadet" of financial success.
